

Biography

Shailesh Kshatriya, CFA®

Director, Investment Strategies

Shailesh “Shay” Kshatriya is the director, investment strategies, in Russell Investments’ Global Client Strategies group. His views help guide multi-asset portfolios. He also serves as a key spokesperson, communicating Russell Investments’ market outlook and positioning to retail and institutional investors.

Shay has authored or co-authored several articles which have appeared in Russell Investments’ publications. He has been a regular guest on BNN Bloomberg TV, and has been quoted in various publications, including Reuters, Morningstar, Globe & Mail, Toronto Star, National Post, and others.

Shay joined Russell Investments in 2005 as an investment analyst in the New York office, where he worked within the U.S. Institutional Analytics group. He relocated in 2008 to Russell Investments’ Canada, where he spent 11 years as director, investment strategies, providing capital markets insights and strategic advice. In 2019, Shay returned to the U.S., and now provides insights for Russell Investments’ U.S. and Canadian business from Raleigh, NC. Shay began his financial career at Brown Brothers Harriman & Co as a portfolio analyst within their private wealth management group.

B.S., Finance, Rutgers University
CFA® charterholder, CFA Institute