

Important Information about Financial Calculator Reports

This report is provided to you by your representative either in his/her capacity as a registered representative, an investment advisor representative, or a financial planner of MML Investors Services, LLC (“MMLIS”), Member SIPC and/or an insurance agent of Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (“MassMutual”) your “Advisor”. MMLIS and MassMutual are affiliates. Any advice provided by your Advisor is solely incidental to any insurance or brokerage business. Some of the reports your advisor may provide to you pertain to financial matters outside of the business that s/he provides on behalf of MassMutual and/or MMLIS (e.g., loan/mortgage origination).

This report is provided for illustrative and informational purposes only. It is not a solicitation to purchase any specific product or service or engage in any specific financial transaction. Any retirement planning, estate planning, and tax information contained within the report is general in nature, is provided for informational and educational purposes only, and should not be considered legal or tax advice. Always consult an attorney or tax professional regarding your specific legal or tax situation.

This report is based on values entered by your advisor that may be actual or assumed, hypothetical rates of return, and assumptions about time-periods, tax rates, and other factors; it does not account for actual fees and expenses associated with financial products and services; and assumptions may not be complete or accurate. Consequently, the report results are hypothetical, do not predict or project the future performance or values of any specific product, service or account, and should not be relied upon to make a financial decision.
