THE FUND INVESTS PRIMARILY in U.S. emerging companies which may involve considerably more risk than investing in larger-cap stocks. Please see "Primary Risks for Fund Investors" in the prospectus.

STOCK MARKET RISKS Stock mutual funds are subject to stock market risks and significant fluctuations in value. If the stock market declines in value, the Fund is likely to decline in value and you could lose money on your investment.

STOCK SELECTION RISKS The portfolio securities selected by the Adviser may decline in value or not increase in value when the stock market in general is rising and may fail to meet the Fund's investment objective.

The Fund's investment objectives, risk, charges and expenses must be considered carefully before investing. The prospectus contains this and other important information about the investment company, and may be obtained by calling 1-866-972-8848, or by visiting www.satuitfunds.com. Read it carefully before investing.
