FINANCIAL COMPANIES

You are invited to our next introductory workshop:

Beyond Insurance

At Michigan Financial Companies, life insurance is just a piece of what we do. We're a comprehensive financial services firm that's dedicated to assisting our clients in the pursuit of their financial goals. Through our unique process, we evaluate every component of your financial picture and help you implement strategies that will help get you where you want to be.

During this informational webinar, we will aim to answer the question we most commonly hear, including:

- Where does insurance fit into financial planning?
- What does "comprehensive" financial services entail?
- How would a financial plan help me?
- What makes your process unique?
