

Reg BI Supplemental Capacity Disclosure

For Registered Representatives who are both Series 6 and Series 62 and Investment Adviser Representatives

This Reg BI Supplemental Capacity Disclosure contains additional information about the products and services I can provide to you through MML Investors Services, LLC (MMLIS). As detailed in our Reg BI Disclosure, MMLIS offers a wide array of broker-dealer products and services and investment advisory services. As a Series 6 registered representative, I am able to make recommendations and provide services related to mutual funds, variable life insurance, variable annuities, unit investment trusts, and municipal fund securities (such as 529 Plans). As a Series 62 registered representative, I am also able to make recommendations and provide services related to individual securities that are corporate stocks or corporate bonds, exchange traded funds, or closed-end funds. I am not able to offer the other broker-dealer products, such as non-corporate individual securities, alternative investments and structured products, available through MMLIS. I am also an investment advisory representative and can provide a limited universe of the investment advisory services available through MMLIS. In the event that I am unable to offer an investment or service that is in your best interest, I may be able to refer you to another MMLIS financial professional who can offer such products and services.
