RUSSELL INVESTMENT DIVISION

Associate biography

Mark Eibel, CFA®
Director, Investment Strategies

Mark Eibel is the director of client investment strategies for Russell Investments. In this role, Mark implements model strategies into client portfolios and helps set strategic asset allocation targets. He is also responsible for helping to drive product innovation on the private client side of the business.

Prior to assuming this role in 2008, Mark served as director of Russell's U.S. equity manager research and head of Russell's U.S. market oriented-value and Canadian equity manager research teams. Mark joined the U.S. equity and fixed income research team in 1991 as a research associate and was promoted to research analyst in 1994 and senior research analyst in 1995. His Russell career began in 1984 in Russell's quantitative operations services group.

Mark serves as a principal spokesman for Russell's investment process and frequently speaks to clients, industry conferences and the media. He is a frequent guest on television and radio networks such as CNBC, Bloomberg TV, and Bloomberg Radio. Mark is responsible for the quarterly Investment Manager Outlook and represents the investment division on the Board of Directors for the Russell Investment Company.

Mark holds a B.A. in Business Administration from Pacific Lutheran University. He is a CFA® Charterholder and a member of the Seattle Chapter of Financial Analysts.
