Ullmann Wealth Partners Partner Patrick Kilbane Appointed to Jacksonville Port Authority Board of Directors

JACKSONVILLE BEACH, Fla. (June 10, 2024) – Partner, General Counsel and Wealth Advisor at Ullmann Wealth Partners Patrick Kilbane was appointed to the Jacksonville Port Authority (JAXPORT) Board of Directors by Gov. Ron DeSantis.

JAXPORT is a full-service, international trade seaport that owns, maintains and markets three cargo terminals, two intermodal container transfer facilities and a passenger cruise terminal along the St. Johns River. A recent study found that the port generates more than 200,000 jobs in Florida and supports nearly $33 billion in annual economic output.

“I’m honored to receive this prestigious appointment by Gov. DeSantis,” Kilbane said. “I look forward to joining the Jacksonville Port Authority board and supporting the great work done by one of our country’s premier ports.”

Kilbane serves as a Commissioner for the Fourth Circuit Judicial Nominating Commission and previously served two terms as Chair of the Jacksonville Aviation Authority Board of Directors. As the Director of the Divorce Advisory Group at Ullmann and co-author of Move Forward Confidently: A Woman's Guide to Navigating the High-Net-Worth Divorce, he supports clients throughout the marriage dissolution process. He earned his bachelor’s degree from Adrian College and his juris doctor from the University of Notre Dame.
