

PROJECT-BASED LEARNING LEADERSHIP SYMPOSIUM

The Watertown Hotel
4242 Roosevelt Way NE, Seattle, WA 98105
Seattle, WA
(206) 826-4242

WEDNESDAY – JULY 12th

5:30-8:00 PM

Dinner

Ivar's Salmon House

Welcome + Introductions

What do we know about learning?

- Understanding the “Why”: An Introduction to the Research on Learning Sciences as a Driver Toward Project-Based Learning

THURSDAY – JULY 13th

What is rigorous Project-Based Learning? Why are STEM/STEAM schools drawn to this approach?

- Ramping Up for Implementation – Chutes and Ladders
- Communicating the “Why”
- Variation in performance is the core problem to address
- See the system that produces the current outcomes

FRIDAY – JULY 13th

How do we move from launch to scale and sustainability?

- Rethinking scale: Beyond numbers to deep and lasting change
- Using disciplined inquiry
- Accelerate improvements through networked communities

Wrap Up and Next Steps

- Creating a community of leaders