Thine Is the Glory

Thine is the glory, Risen, conquering Son;
Endless is the victory Thou o'er death hast won.

Thine is the glory, Risen, conquering Son;
Endless is the victory Thou o'er death hast won.
Angels in bright raiment Rolled the stone away,
Kept the folded grave-clothes Where Thy body lay.
Thine is the glory, Risen, conquering Son;
Endless is the victory Thou o'er death hast won.

Let His church with gladness Hymns of triumph sing,
For her Lord now liveth; Death hath lost its sting.
Thine is the glory, Risen, conquering Son;
Endless is the victory Thou o'er death hast won.

Thine is the glory, Risen, conquering Son;
Endless is the victory Thou o'er death hast won.
Thine is the glory, Thine is the glory,
Thine is the glory!

Words by Edmund L. Budry, translated by Richard B. Hoyle; music by George Frederick Handel; arranged by Tim Zimmerman and Mark Rice

LET US COME BEFORE HIS PRESENCE WITH THANKSGIVING

O come, let us sing for joy to the LORD,
Let us shout joyfully to the rock of our salvation.
Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving,
Let us shout joyfully to Him with psalms.
For the LORD is a great God
And a great King above all gods,
In whose hand are the depths of the earth,
The peaks of the mountains are His also.
The sea is His, for it was He who made it,
And His hands formed the dry land.
Come, let us worship and bow down,
Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.
For He is our God,
And we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand.

PSALM 95:1-7

Everywhere God is present, but there is a peculiar presence of grace and glory into which men should never come without the profoundest reverence. We may make bold to come before the immediate presence of the Lord—for the voice of the Holy Ghost in this psalm invites us, and when we do draw near to Him we should remember His great goodness to us and cheerfully confess it. Our worship should have reference to the past as well as to the future; if we do not bless the Lord for what we have already received, how can we reasonably look for more. We are permitted to bring our petitions, and therefore we are in honour bound to bring our thanksgivings.
