

Enlisted FY21 Voluntary Force Management Program Eligibility Matrix (as of 22 Jan 21)

To be eligible to apply for a FY21 Force Management (FM) program, your CAFSC must be listed and there must be an identified overage (blue box with a number) under your grade or projected grade. You must also have an active duty service commitment waiverable under the program. Please review PSDM 21-04, FY21 Voluntary Enlisted FY21 FM Programs.

NOTE 1: If your CAFSC and grade are not annotated as eligible, you may still apply for retirement or separation through the normal application process. Please review the provisions in AFI 36-3203, Service Retirements, AFI 36-3208, Administrative Separation of Airmen, or AFI 36-3205, Applying for PALACE CHASE and PALACE FRONT programs, and provide written justification when required.

NOTE 2: If you are not eligible for the FY21 FM program and you apply for PALACE CHASE during the application window, the service commitment is reduced from a three for one service obligation to a one for one exchange if your application is approved.

NOTE 3: The numbers listed below each grade indicate potential overages; however, based on mission needs, the Air Force may close the program with little or no notice.

NOTE 4: The numbers listed below may fluctuate up and down based on changes in predicted and actual losses.
