NIC Resources

The National Institute of Corrections is committed to assisting the field of corrections and its partners with obtaining the latest information on working with local communities and the criminal justice system to ensure the safety, security, and proper supervision of all inmates. This includes facilitating the use of evidence-based practices and supporting continued professional development among corrections staff. NIC is continually adding to its collection of resources directed toward those who work with and assist LGBTI offenders. Please visit our online resource page often for updated information.
