 - a. Completed and signed Release and Acknowledgement Form
 - b. Current Resume
11. The OQHA Queen contest consists of three things: a horsemanship ride, a written exam and a personal interview.

Horsemanship

The horsemanship ride accounts for 20% of the total score. The horsemanship ride will be held, in conjunction with, the last scheduled quarter horse show sponsored by an OQHA affiliate. The pattern will be released at least 24 hours prior to the day of the class. The candidate is not required to own the horse exhibited in the horsemanship ride. Each candidate will receive a score based on the AQHA scoring. If multiple judges are used their scores will be averaged.

Ohio Queen Contest Rules, continued

Show Date – Saturday, September 8th at the Eastern Ohio Quarter Horse Show held in Columbus. The Horsemanship class will run immediately following class 96 (2 YO Western Pleasure).

Written Exam

The written exam accounts for 40% of the total score. The written exam consists of 50 questions on general horse knowledge, along with many questions from the AQHA Official Handbook of Rules and Regulations and OQHA Handbook. The written exam may contain true and false, multiple choice and fill in the blank questions. Each question will be worth 2 points. The written exam will be given on the morning of the OQHA Banquet held in February 2019.

Personal Interview

The personal interview accounts for 40% of the total score. There will be two or three interviewers judging you on your appearance, delivery, content, organization, and overall ability to represent OQHA. Each candidate will spend approximately 30 minutes in front of the judges panel. Each candidate will receive a score based on five criteria above (20 points for each criteria) for a total possible score of 100. The judges scores will be averaged. The personal interview will take place on the morning of the OQHA Banquet held in February 2019.

*In the event of a tie, the personal interview score will be used to determine the winner. The interview has been chosen as the tie-breaker since we feel it is very important for our Ohio Queen to be well spoken in order to best represent the Ohio Quarter Horse Association. One interview judge will be a tiebreaker judge.

12. The Ohio Queen will maintain a professional appearance; wardrobe, hair and makeup. Being proper and planned for each event and in keeping up to date with current trends.
13. The Ohio Queen will be crowned at the annual OQHA banquet held in February. A formal gown is suggested to be worn for the crowning ceremony. The queen's duties will begin immediately after the crowning and she will be required to continue her duties for one full year.
14. As the Ohio Queen you agree to represent AQHA/OQHA at several major horse shows and events throughout the year. These details and events will be worked out with the queen's committee.
15. As the Ohio Queen you will represent OQHA in the All American Quarter Horse Congress Queens Competition.
16. As the Ohio Queen, you promote the Ohio Quarter Horse Association amongst other breed and non-breed organizations
17. As the Ohio Queen, you will encourage participation, sportsmanship and growth at all levels within the organization
