Neon Keepsakes

A new book, Neon Keepsakes—Nevada Authors on Toys and Trifles, features eleven writers from Las Vegas and beyond who explore the tension between the austerity of the desert and the extravagance of Sin City through the metaphor of toys. Las Vegas loves toys—slot machines, roller coasters, ziplines. The Las Vegas Writes series of books are great for Vegas enthusiasts, with their recognizable locations, situations, and personalities—and feature subject matter you won't find anywhere else. No equations. No basic strategies. Just a relaxing read provided courtesy of some of the city's best wordsmiths. This latest in the series promises to be a lot of fun. Visit the main page of www.lasvegasadvisor.com and look for the book under "SHOP. "

Gambling Tax Deduction Update

The FAIR BET Act, federal legislation proposed by Nevada's congressional delegation that would restore the 100% deduction on gambling losses, recently passed out of the House Ways and Means Committee. After 14 months of failed attempts to clear this key hurdle, the bill to rescind the 90% limit on gambling losses now goes to the floor of the House of Representatives for a vote. If the House passes the bill before Jan. 1, the tax will never have taken effect and would lay this discriminatory and inexcusable extraction from phantom winnings to rest once and for all, permanently, forever and ever. Until the next time some dim-bulb politician sneaks it back onto the last page of a 1,728-page Big Ugly Bill.

Billion Dollar Win

The Illinois winner of the $1.04 billion Powerball jackpot finally came forward. The anonymous winner took the lump sum payout of $450.5 million and will, after taxes, wind up with roughly $262 million (Illinois rakes just under 5%). The winning icket was sold on Aug. 12 after a run of more than three months without a jackpot; it was the 15th largest lottery payout in U.S. history. The winner told the Illinois Lottery, "I initially didn't believe I'd won, so I called a family member to confirm it. Even after claiming the prize, I'm still processing the news and experiencing the full range of emotions that come with winning a billion-dollar jackpot—from disbelief and shock to overwhelming elation." The winner bought a $2 single-line Quick Pick at a Hy-Vee Fast & Fresh convenience store and gas station in Quincy, Illinois, and said, "I never could have imagined that a $2 purchase would lead to a $1.04 billion jackpot."

Orson Welles Explains Craps

It seems that actor and director Orson Welles needed some cash at some point in the late 1970s because he agreed to narrate a 30-minute video on how to play baccarat, craps, blackjack, and keno for Caesars Palace. Welles, who caused a national panic about a Martian invasion when he narrated a radio adaptation of H. G. Wells' novel The War of the Worlds and co-wrote, produced, directed, and starred in the 1941 masterpiece Citizen Kane, struggled with money his entire life due to his outsized artistic ambitions and expensive tastes.You can see this rare 1978 video, seven years before Welles died at the age of 70, for a good look at late '70s Caesars when it was the most glamorous casino in the world and to see and hear Welles narrate an in-depth lesson on how to play the games. Find the video on YouTube by searching "Caesars

First Play Pays

One North Carolina woman received a major payday after she decided to buy her first-ever lottery ticket on a whim.
Gastonia resident Kahla Jeffries said it all went down when she stopped into Will's Food Store on Hickory Grove Road during a routine gas stop, according to a press release from the North Carolina Education Lottery (NCEL). A particular scratch-off ticket stood out to her and she decided to take a chance. "That one just caught my eye," she recalled. The ticket—a $100,000 Cash Payday scratch-off—turned out to be a $100,000 top-prize winner. When she realized what she'd won, Jeffries said she could hardly believe it. "I didn't think I was looking at it right," she said. Jeffries visited lottery headquarters to claim her prize on July 24. She took home $72,018 after required federal and state tax withholdings, per NCEL. Jeffries said she plans to use her winnings to buy a car and save for school.

Forgotten Ticket = Big Dollars

An Australian couple spent almost two months going about their usual routine without realizing they had won a lottery prize of $3.4 million. The lucky ticket was left on a desk in their Sydney home for seven weeks before they decided to check whether they had won, according to Australian outlet 7NEWS. The pair held the only division one entry for the Set for Life jackpot, which was drawn on July 1, meaning they won $4.8 million, the equivalent of $3.4 million in the U.S. They will now receive over $14,200 (U.S.) a month for the next two decades. "I'm all shaken up at the moment," the woman told The Lott, per 7NEWS. "I can't believe it. I had no idea. This ticket has just been sitting on my desk at home the whole time. I kept saying, 'I've got to go check this ticket'—and today we did," she said. The woman said she had only been playing Set for Life for six months but had a feeling they were going to win big. The lucky winner described the prize as "literally a dream come true" adding, "this has changed our lives. You've no idea what this means to us. Things like this just don't happen to people like us."

Winning Couple Still Giving Back

Ten years ago, everything changed for one couple when they won big in the lottery, winning more than $8 million. Since then, they've continued to give back to their local community. The massive prize from The National Lottery in the U.K. allowed Kevin and Michele Jones to better their own lives, and it also gave them the opportunity to lend support to others nearby. In May 2016, the six numbers on Kevin's Lotto ticket matched those of the jackpot draw perfectly. The lucky break allowed Kevin to quit his job as a bus driver. Michele, meanwhile, who had worked as a classroom assistant, also left her line of work. But even though the jackpot freed them from working their day-to-day jobs, the couple still wanted to make sure they could also give back to their community. In the ten years since, Kevin and Michelle have volunteered their time and given money to The Pantry at Sandbach Hub, a volunteer-run food bank that supports over 50 families throughout South Cheshire each week. "Winning the lottery has bought us more time than anything—the time to dedicate and support important charities like [the pantry], which do so much for the local community," Michele said. She also told the BBC that she has been on the team at the food bank for four years. "My husband saw it advertised that they were looking for volunteers, and I've joined it from day one." Michele added: "I've always wanted to help other people, so I've got the opportunity now."

VA Thieves Never Learn

Criminals just can't seem to help themselves when it comes to stealing from the Department of Veterans Affairs. What they haven't figured out is that they will eventually get caught.

In a despicable scheme, a New Jersey man has admitted to helping steal and then sell $8.2 million in HIV drugs. One of his theft partners worked in a VA hospital pharmacy and was discovered via surveillance footage. The thefts happened over the course of 27 months. How, we would like to know, could someone be allowed to walk out with $8.2 million in drugs in her bag without being stopped by security?

The U.S. Attorney had a big day in arresting 16 people in a massive kickback-and-bribery scheme that included vendors and employees at two Florida VA hospitals. The $20 million in thefts started in 2009 and wasn't discovered in audits. Their methods of theft and the charges were numerous and varied: inflating the cost of goods sold or shorting the orders, paying kickbacks, making purchases with VA credit cards, receiving bribes, healthcare fraud and ordering from companies that didn't exist. The last of the band of thieves was recently sentenced.

In a smaller but equally important scheme, a Washington landlord admitted to scamming $16,000 for HUD-VA housing for a homeless veteran. Not only was he billing the government for the monthly rent, but he was collecting from the veteran as well, a clear violation of the HUD-VASH program. For this he will get nailed for three times the amount he stole. The formerly homeless veteran will share in this and get a settlement of $4,000.

The one big beef I have is that none of these criminals ever go to jail for very long.

Listen Up: Engage Your Brain With Podcasts

Have you ever listened to a podcast? A podcast is a digital audio or video file that you can access from the internet. They're often in a series that you can tune into one at a time, almost like radio on demand. They're usually associated with a website where you can find out what's available and a schedule for new ones. You can listen or watch on your computer, phone or tablet, but you'll need an app (application) if you want to download and take it with you, unless your phone has one pre-installed.

One way to find entertaining podcasts is to plug one of your areas of interest into a web browser and add "podcast" to see what comes up. Or as a place to start, look at AARP's website (www.aarp.org/podcasts) and see what it offers. Right now, there are podcasts about various scams, protecting your finances and high prescription-drug prices, all worth a listen. Scroll to the bottom of the page for instructions.

If you search the internet for podcasts, you'll find vintage radio programs, celebrities, financial information, stories from history, news, brain stretchers, sports themes, stress reduction and so much more. There must be hundreds of thousands of podcasts out there to choose from. Try a search for "podcasts for seniors" to see what surprises pop up.

Horoscopes for November 2026

ARIES (MAR 21-APR 20): Emotional intelligence is a key concept for you to contemplate this month. What's it like to walk in someone else's shoes? Try to accommodate the needs of those closest to you without feeling trapped by guilt. Hear what they share with you, but don't lose your own voice.
Lucky Days: 9 -16
Lucky Numbers: 22 - 24

TAURUS (APR 21-MAY 21): The new Moon on the 9th stimulates your desire for transformation. Watch for an opportunity to change the course of an ongoing project. Progressing into the new year requires freeing yourself from habits that decrease your self-control. Gain insights from those more advanced than you.
Lucky Days: 5 - 13
Lucky Numbers: 5 - 45

GEMINI (MAY 22-JUN 21): Your ability to mix with all sorts of folks is one of the ways you achieve your goals. But this month—with your ruler, Mercury, feeling private and reserved—you'll benefit most from solitude and downtime. This allows you to deep dive into some of the new interests that have intrigued you.
Lucky Days: 12 - 30
Lucky Numbers: 10 - 58

CANCER (JUN 22-JUL 22): The new Moon on the 9th stimulates a more forceful, determined part of your nature. You usually find a way to remain low-key when going after your goals. But this month you're ready to force your way to the front of the line and express exactly what it is you need.
Lucky Days: 3 - 11
Lucky Numbers: 4 - 47

LEO (JUL 23-AUG 23): Money is uppermost on your mind now. The new Moon on the 9th places your attention on creative ways to live more frugally. Reign in your carefree, shoot-the-moon attitude when it comes to spending and learn to budget up until the end of the year when cash starts flowing again.
Lucky Days: 5 - 17
Lucky Numbers: 26 - 36

VIRGO (AUG 24-SEP 23): With your ruler moving through snarky Scorpio, be careful with how you apply your quicksilver wit. Now is a good month for sleuthing and in-depth research. Don't rush though; carefully applied analysis will win the day with just about any puzzle or predicament you're stuck in.
Lucky Days: 8 - 9
Lucky Numbers: 33 - 39

LIBRA (SEP 24-OCT 23): Self-analysis can pay off big time now. Make sure your natural inclination to compromise for the sake of peace isn't being taken advantage of by others. If you're tired of living under someone else's rules, this is a fantastic month to strike out on your own.
Lucky Days: 3 - 10
Lucky Numbers: 1 - 23

SCORPIO (OCT 24-NOV 22): The new Moon in your sign on the 9th opens the door to the world of magic. Don't be afraid to experiment with pastimes that might seem foolish or irrational. Your imagination is potent; focus on what it is you need and say the right prayer or affirmation to bring it to life.
Lucky Days: 3 - 5
Lucky Numbers: 39 - 55

SAGITTARIUS (NOV 23-DEC 21): Autumn is a melancholic time of year for you. You might be missing friends who have disappeared or moved away. Rather than losing yourself in emotion, practice conscious gratitude. Acknowledge the blessings that enrich your life. And know that more are on the way.
Lucky Days: 2 - 22
Lucky Numbers: 1 - 8

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22–Jan. 20): If you've ever desired to devote more of your life to a spiritual or philosophical path, this is your moment to explore those teachings. Get outside! As an earth sign, you benefit from long walks that open your heart to new vistas. The natural world revitalizes you with each step you take.
Lucky Days: 12 - 27
Lucky Numbers: 44 - 56

AQUARIUS (JAN 21-FEB 19): You thrive when you participate with others in a group or club. This brings out the best part of your intuitive nature, which is uncanny when it comes to sensing the future. The new Moon on the 9th highlights a trove of fresh ideas related to work. What do you wish to focus on in the new year?
Lucky Days: 4 - 15
Lucky Numbers: 49 - 53

PISCES (FEB 20-MAR 20): Don't let the passage of time trick you. You always can change direction in the middle of whatever road you're traveling. With your ruler in a fire sign now, it's imperative that you give your ego an opportunity to shine and do what you do best—attract the people you need to fulfill your aims.
Lucky Days: 22 - 27
Lucky Numbers: 5 - 19

University Bingo Girls

To most people, they are known as the Bingo Girls. To the Student Union Board (SUB) of Elon University in North Carolina, they are the Late Night chairs. Elon sophomores Alecks Mantell and Allison Bell are the current faces of the late-night bingo events hosted by SUB. Bingo nights are characterized by scoreboards, sought-after prizes and community. While Bingo Girl is not Mantell or Bell's official title, their roles as hosts of bingo nights does include calling the numbers and introducing prizes. Even before they became Late Night chairs, Mantell said they were entranced by their predecessors as far back as orientation, watching them host. "I was like, 'Wow, that looks like so much fun. I want to be up there. That's gonna be me, guys,'" To become a Late Night chair, there was an interview process like any other job. And beyond the presentation skills the job requires, Bingo nights take a lot of behind-the-scenes planning, especially when it comes to the prizes. "We have to think about budget, and we also have to think about gender neutral things and different kinds of audiences," Bell said. Being a Bingo Girl also lasts beyond the late nights, as their titles blend into their social lives on campus. "I feel like a celebrity sometimes," Mantell said. "I am constantly recognized." Bell shares the same sentiment. "Throughout the events, people get to know you and see what you do," Bell said. "It's kind of just something really cool to feel that people know you." Bell and Mantell both quickly debunked the myth that bingo nights are rigged, stating that the games are not. "I'm breaking down the myth," Bell said. "I hate to tell you guys…the games aren't rigged."

Senior Wellness Decathlon

All fourteen Salt Lake County Senior Centers stepped up to the plate with a fierce competitive look in their residents' eyes. About 100 participants competed in a 10-event Decathlon, ultimately vying for gold, silver, and bronze medals. According to Amanda Anderson, manager at Magna Kennecott Senior Center, the participants came from all across Salt Lake County to show off their mad skills. "It brings everybody together and is a chance for them to meet other people," said Anderson. The competitive events included: 9-Ball Pool, Yard Pong, Boggle Mania, Cornhole, Horseshoes, Axe Throwing, Shuffleboard, Table Tennis, Wii Bowling and Bingo. The Decathlon is one of the ways that senior centers promote staying active, functional fitness, and community. Though the participants were competitors in the events, the decathlon was meant to promote friendship and mutual support.

Bark-o-lantern Bingo

Man's furry best friends and their owners joined the fun at the recent Bark-o-lantern Halloween Bingo in Tonganoxie, Kansas. Hosted by Tonganoxie Recreation Commission and County Line Brewing, this all-ages event featured five exciting rounds of bingo, paw-some prizes, dog-friendly snacks and an afternoon full of fun, friends and wagging tails. Prizes included items for people and their dogs. All pups were required to be friendly, leashed, and up to date on vaccines. And non-dog owners were welcome as well. Let's hope they host this event again next year, because it sounds like a howling good time.

Loaves and Fishes Bingo: A way to give back!

Looking for great bingo, good company, and a chance to make a difference? Loaves and Fishes Bingo in Lewiston brings all three together! Sponsored by Loaves and Fishes and the Dominican Sisters of Sabattus, this community gathering carries forward a mission of faith, compassion, and helping families in need.

Inspired by the spirit of service embodied by the Dominican Sisters, Loaves and Fishes has worked to bring hope and practical assistance to local families. Through charitable outreach and community support, the organization continues its commitment to neighbors facing difficult times. Its motto says it beautifully: “A Leap of Faith Bringing Hope to Sabattus Area Families in Need.”

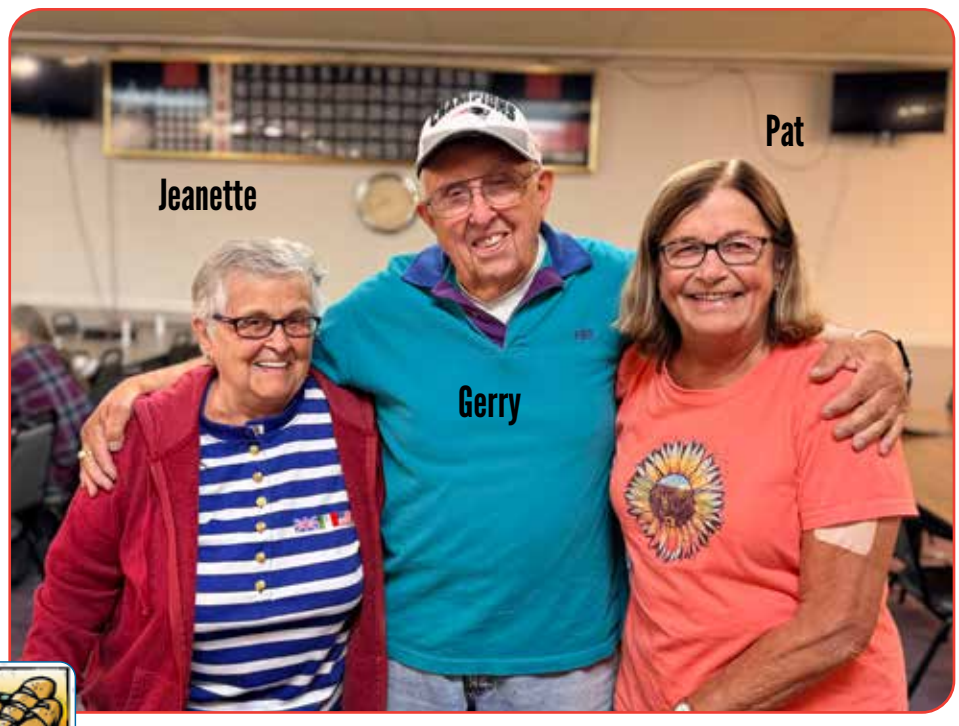

And what better way to support that mission than with a little bingo excitement? Players can enjoy Super Bingo every Sunday, along with Monday and Friday night games and Wednesday afternoon bingo. With multiple card packages, special prizes, 50/50 drawings, and plenty of friendly competition, there’s something to look forward to at every visit.

Bring your lucky dauber, invite a friend, and enjoy the thrill of waiting for that winning number. Every visit helps bring people together around a shared purpose: supporting an organization dedicated to helping local families.

Come for the bingo, stay for the fun, and be part of something good! (See ad pg 12!)

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

★ The Chocolate River in the "Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory" was real! The production used 150,000 gallons of water, cream and chocolate. But the ingredients spoiled and smelled really bad when the movie ended.

★ Studies have shown that playing Tetris can curb sex, drug and food cravings.

★ A Vietnamese man was hospitalized after drinking too much methanol. Doctors transfused 15 cans of beer into his body to revive him. The liver breaks down ethanol before methanol, which gave doctors more time to do dialysis to remove the methanol from his system.

★ Santa Claus was issued a pilot's license from the U.S. government in 1927, along with airway maps and a promise to keep the runway lights on.

★ The fighting on D-Day was so fierce that as much as 4% of the sand on Normandy beaches is magnetic due to shrapnel that has been broken down over the decades into sand-sized bits.

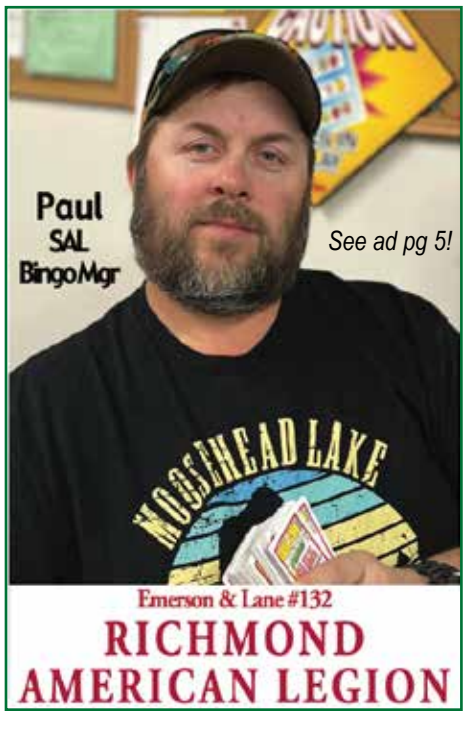

★ Only official members of federally accepted Native American tribes may legally possess or collect eagle feathers.

★ Instead of kissing his bride, Edward II of England sealed his wedding vows with a smooch to his lover, Piers Gaveston, 1st Earl of Cornwall.

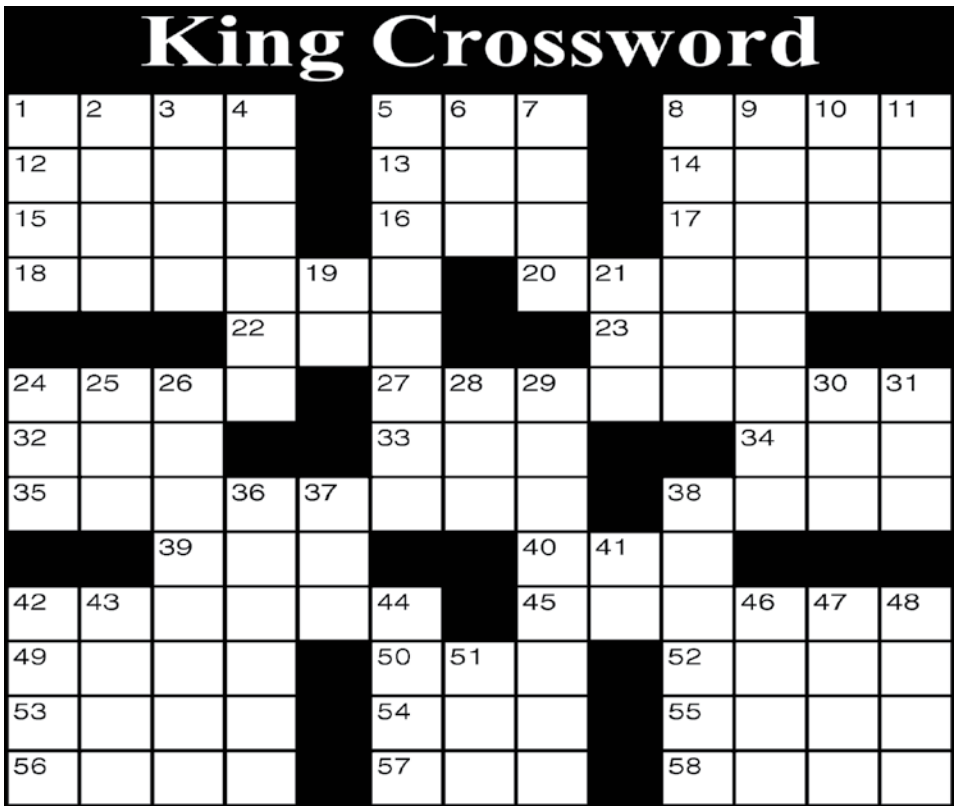

★ During a game, Babe Ruth would place a cabbage leaf under his cap to keep cool under the sun, replacing it every inning or two.

Fun Fact

Diamonds form about 100 miles under the earth. They are carried to the surface by volcanic activity.

Diamonds are the only gems made of one element: pure carbon.

The word diamond comes from the Greek "adamas," which means "invincible" or "indestructible." Some believed diamonds gave their wearers special powers of invincibility in battle.
