

Bulletin Announcement

Money. Purpose. Joy. small group

Today, there's no end to the amount of readily, freely available financial knowledge. And yet, there's also no end to the number of people who struggle to get the money thing right. This 7-week study will fill in the missing pieces of the financial puzzle. Learn how to connect your use of money to your life purpose as you gain biblical, practical guidance on everything from building savings to ditching debt, and from living generously to spending wisely. With video-based instruction, group discussion, and individual activities, you'll discover how to use money in ways that are more productive, more satisfying, and more glorifying to God. The cost is... To register...

Pulpit Announcement

For many of us, money can be something of a mystery. It's common to live with a sense that if we just had a little more of it, life would be better. Or maybe we wonder how much we should spend on a house or a car or our next vacation. Fortunately, the Bible contains a lot of financial guidance and an upcoming seven-session study on this topic called "Money. Purpose. Joy." will unpack that guidance in very practical and helpful ways. Whether you're struggling with too much debt or you're doing just fine but wondering if you're taking a truly biblical approach to managing money, this study is for you. There's more information about how to sign up in your bulletin.