

Identifying Your Financial Fingerprint Checklist

This is a complete checklist of all documents that we will eventually need to complete your financial fingerprint analysis. Please try to compile as many documents as possible for our initial meeting. We will need to scan the original documents for our records and return them to you, unless you are able to provide us with complete photocopies.

It will be helpful to have as many documents as possible for our first meeting, but it is not necessary that all documents be provided at that time. Missing documents can be submitted at a later date.
