8th letter of light

Gematria or numerical value= 8

If counting a weekly cycle according to present day calendars we are now repeating the 1st day of creation. Yom Rishon, the other 2 light letters that fall on this day are Aleph and Samech.

Meaning given to the writer: Our Creator gives us eternal life, so listen to wisdom's voice of love!

English = H, rhymes with met or mate and has the sound of ch as in bach.

This is the light letter that represents life.

Letter of life chay, pronounced khah'ee or chayim, pronounced khah'im means alive hence raw, fresh, strong, life or living thing, appetite, (wild beast, company, congregation from chayah, pronounced khaw-yaw a prime root to live whether lit. or fig., to revive, give life, nourish up, preserve, quicken, recover, repair, restore to life , be whole. The Light letters are Chet, Yud, and Hay. The understanding given to the writer: Life at the beginning of creation has the truth and the revelation of perfect light. True life comes from Chasidut –which means devotion, aleph-tav word charam, pronounced khaw-ram, a prime root to seclude, to devote to the Creators' work, consecrate- Light letters are Chet, Resh, Mem-The understanding given to the writer: Life is in the heads and in the leaders of those that speak truth, words of love, life and light.

Chet is also the number of grace, using the aleph-tav grace is spelled Chen, pronounced khane from graciousness that is kindness, favor, pleasant, precious, well favored from chanan, pronounced - khaw-nan- means to bend or stoop in kindness, to favor, pray, make supplication. Light letters are Chet, Nun, and Nun. The understanding given to the writer: Life is found through humility and expands the seeds of love!

And the word wisdom spelled with light letters chokhmah, pronounced khok-maw -means, skillful, wisely in mind, word, or act, exceeding, teach wisdom, deal wisely. Light letters are Chet, Khaf, and Mem. The understanding given to the writer: Life by the blessed is the word of truth delivered in nature's sounds.

Both grace and wisdom have the Gematria that equals 8. So we have grace, wisdom and life; what a merry trio.

Gematria of Chet: Since chet is formed from Vav (6) and Zayin (7) one Gematria value would be 13, the same value as ahavah- which means love. It is also the value for echad –which means one. Putting these ideas together, we can see that love unifies us in true fellowship, just as our Creator's wisdom taught us.

Chet is the number of new beginnings

. Brit milah – using light letters means the covenant of circumcision which occurs on the 8th day.

. There were 8 souls saved- mabul hagadol which means-great flood, in Noah's day.

. David was the 8th son of Jesse- when the prophet came to anoint David as king his father did not call David from tending the sheep because he did not think David worthy of this high calling. He also looked different than all the rest of his sons.) 1 Sam 16:1-13 pg. 297.

Object lesson-How do we discern? Telescope- what part of the body do you use to see? Eye – light letter Ayin, ah-yin, an eye, a fountain (as the eye of the landscape) outward appearance, color, conceit, be content, countenance, humble, knowledge, look, sight. Greek- spelling -ophthalmos, pronounced -of-thal-mos, the eye , vision, envy (from the jealous side-glance) eye sight to stare at, to discern clearly, to attend, to experience, to appear, behold, perceive, see, take heed.

Chet is the letter that represents discipleship. Love leads and teaches us on the pathway of life.

A yolk is a connection between 2 people so that they move and work together. Since the sum of the letters Vav and Zayin equals the value for love, we can see that the essential nature of this moving and working together is that of loving our Creator first and with that capacity of love, we love one another.

Today, when speaking, we are the present time living scriptures- we are not willing to be yoked to anything other than love, life and light which is found in our Creator. We started as a lost people connected to darkness, however, love works through people –love does not call us to be independent oxen- that will destroy peace and harmony. People of all kind are yoked together and walk in unity –result power in the word of love. Listen to those yoked to our Creator and watch the awakening grow. Remember, the truth about rest and you will not be led astray.

The Creator's law of rest are known by those that understand love, life and light and treasures this daily time.

Conclusion:

Chet is the letter that separates and connects at the same time.

It follows the plow of the word of truth that drives deep into a man and separates even bone and marrow.

Chet makes things clear!!!!!! Life has no darkness! As written in nature, remember, our Creator, "Separated the light from the darkness."

In the garden was there a need for a fence? No.

But when humankind chose unhealthy choices then they were removed from the garden of protection and churb's (imaginary figure) were placed to guard the Tree of Life. This is a fence.

What does that mean to us today? Choose you this day life, the garden of protection, so that darkness flees from your thoughts and the truth becomes clear, beautiful and treasured. No need for stories or words that cover truth because life has given you the inner eye to see. An awakened being or child of light. Go outside and view nature!

The words of peace, rest and truth have become the only fence of protection adored by those that love life and light.

In past history, The Holy of Holies was protected by a fence of curtains and is likened to the words of peace that protects us today.

Curtain using the light letters is spelled y-riy-ah, pronounced yer-ee-aw, a hanging (as tremulous-quivering, timid or nervous) from yara pronounced Yaw-rah means a prime root to be broken up with any violent action. That is to fear. Light letters are Yod, Resh, Yod, Ayin, Chet- The understanding given to the writer: The beginning of all things is located in the head and has the power from wisdom, using heart love, to gain LIFE even to unwanted destruction.

We were one of the nations steeped in traditions and idols. We forgot our Creator along with the true rest time and how to heal from the law of love. Remember to walk without shoes in the soil to connect with truth.

The closer we move in, toward the pure truth, the closer to our Creator's presence and peace we embrace.

Greater the requirements of keeping the law of love as you get closer inside the heart of our Creator, the 1st protection to the truth. The freer you want to be, the more wisdom will reveal to you in depth, on each word of wisdom. This beginning revelation comes and is confirmed as you love what you have already been awakened to. Spend time outside with your feet buried in the rich soil.

Your joy (perfect presence in you and blessed with the power to speak love words, for power, equals words of love, life and light) where you are placed is based on what you do in your body here on the earth. We are not talking about the first encounter of beautiful words received that is near the door, where truth first meets you. We have gone further into the tabernacle or the tent of meeting or temple or state of mind-buried deep within the earth's soil, eternal awareness- right into the heart, the very omnipresence of our Creator.

The ribcage (fence) protects the heart and lungs. Our Creator made each person with this protection. The heart and lungs represent love and life. We are living truth daily by the words we speak and the thoughts we treasure. Pure truth is called the word of love made flesh. Our Creator made each of us perfect with the capacity to love and have life more abundantly.

The word flesh using the aleph-tav is spelled-ba sar, pronounced baw-sawr and means body, person, mankind, skin, nakedness from baw-sar meaning a prime root to be fresh, that is full, cheerful, to announce glad news, messenger, preach, publish, show forth (bear, bring, carry, preach, good, tell good) tidings. This is where we get the word besorah – good news or words of peace. Light letters are Bet, Shin, and Resh- The understanding given to the writer: - A body of flesh created from love, shines forth and clears the heads of mankind for the good news, besorah, words of peace.

Hightower

I've taken a look down the true narrow path of time

And connected it to the treasured creation of the One that has designed.

The words of love that builds a home and its gates,
Withstanding the marvelous promise made between mates.
As I pressed forward the religious were sure to catch my eye, but returning to my Creator daily

Peace was restored, filling my lungs, with a deep sigh.
I see, children of light, rejoicing and singing, on the wonderful land called earth,
Sharing their heart's blessings and entering in for their born within birth.

From the top of the head down to the toes of the feet,
An energy flows freely proving that we are mature and complete.

The memory of love is sweet and the harmony has a marvelous sound.

The awaken are bright and beautiful with the peace of discernment they have found.

A new and joyful day is celebrated in a delightful hour,
Being thankful for love, life and light, our Creator's high tower.

Luke Dreams

The day began as one would think.....The sun arose and because of that, there was light. All things started to move from a lifeless sleep. One could begin to feel the excitement that this day would bring.

Luke went down to the kitchen where mother was making breakfast. He thought, "What game will I play today? Yesterday, I played like I was mom and dad so today I will play like I am my dog, Spot."

Luke quickly brushed his teeth and combed his hair then gobbled-down his pancakes and milk. After mom's instructions for the day she held open the kitchen door to let Luke out. Spot was waiting on the porch wagging his tail. As soon as he saw Luke he jumped up for his treat.

Mother knew that Luke was excited about living because he wore a huge wide smile across his large round face.

Luke ran across the yard and up a tall tree to his secret hide-out place. He lay down on the tree house floor, with his head propped in his hands. As he closed his eyes he thought how it would be to be his dog, Spot.

Spot is a huge and ferocious dog. He has large red spots all over his body. Do you see them? His ears are long and pointed like an Indian arrow. His hair is short and fussy like cotton candy. Spot begins to walk down the street and sees his friend, Philip, being chased by another huge dog. Spot decides to grow as big as a house and scares the other dog away. Spot grows smaller again and wags his tail for Philip. Philip, the cat, licks Spot's ear and tell him what a brave and wonderful dog he is. Spot is really happy now.

Luke is now in an airplane with large wings and a propeller as big as the sun. The airplane sores up and down and back and forth throughout the earth eating up all the oranges and bananas for fuel. Up in the sky, the airplane approaches a cloud that is full of rain. As Luke flies through the cloud he is amazed at the wonders of heaven! Then, in a blink of an eye, he comes out of the clouds and enters into another part of the earth that he has never seen before. He looks down at the people and notices that they have straight coal black hair and eyes that are almond shaped. Can you guess where he is?

Away he flies for many more miles. He propels himself through thick icy skies. As he looks down at the people he sees them dressed in heavy wool coats. They travel with sleds and their houses are made of ice. Where do you think he is now?

As he moves closer to the equator, he reaches a place where the sun is so very strong. He looks down and sees lions, monkeys, elephants, and giraffes playing tag with each other. Where could he possibly be now? And then.....

Luke hears his daddy's voice in the distance calling him home.

Quickly he runs back to the house where his daily chores and family await him. Having fun can never replace listening to his mother or father when they call him.

Remember the teaching of your Creator so that your life will be long on the earth.
