4th letter of the Aleph Bet updated 2/14/23 Gregorian,
11/24/6009 Greater-lesser light calendar

English letter – D

Pronounced dah-et- sound of D as in door.

The numerical value is 4.

The “fourth day” of creation is called Yom Revi’l. It is called Wednesday and is the 4th day of the week on the Gregorian calendar. Written like this using letters of light: יום רביעי.

Fourth using letters of light are raw-bah, raba, a prime root to squat or lie out flat sprawling at all fours- The letters of light are Resh, Bet, Ayin- from arba, ar-bah or arba ah, ah-baw-aw- letters of light are Aleph, Resh, Bet, and Ayin. Understanding given to the writer: Our Creator, the Creator of all things, resides with those that watch and love from every direction.

Dalet represents a doorway. In other words, when the letter is placed in a word, you have to keep in mind that not only is it the letter “D”, it is the number 4 and symbolizes a door. For example in the name ADAM – ADM – Aleph Dalet, Mem using the aleph-tav, Dalet is the central letter, between the Aleph and the Mem. The Creator’s doorway to receive the word. The understanding given to the writer: So humankind was created to speak and articulate words that opened the door to truth and gave order to creation.

Eden has Dalet in the middle of it: Dalet is the doorway to Eden (our eternal awakening) - and to awaken from darkness to light, “our Creator born within”.

“Everyone drinking of well water shall thirst again, but whoever drinks of the water from creation shall certainly never thirst. And the water shall become a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life within.” This water is perfect wisdom (eating from the fruits of creation) that opens the door and the actual words to love, life and light.

How do we return to the Garden of Eden? We mentally return to our Creator, in mind, heart and physically we eat from the table of creation, and spend time in nature thereby, purification happens as wisdom cleans our words of darkness. Our words become loving and kindness for mankind is seen in our daily actions.

This takes a process of time! We just cannot see all the lies and unhealthy traditions at one time nor be able to stand in the light of Perfect Presence all at once. We will still be in cycles of un-health that we entered in before we were awakened to our Creator, within. So, become united and one with love, life and light in the power that can rid our personal mind of darkness. Remember, "Born from within" is a continual daily offering of one self and is not the same as the initial awakening. As you mature in your walk with our Creator you will understand the distance that you were in, from truth.

We are talking about the distance from the words of truth. Look at the words in the bible concordance from a to z and select only words that you feel the high vibration of love, life and light. Following our Creator's one law of love will guide you to all healthy words. You are like a baby when first born within. Many years of loving and seeking truth will bring you to our Creator's one law of love, having no judgement but correct discernment.

You see, heart love is the doorway that understands wisdom so you may awakened eternity or the Most Holy place, our mind, within your very being. Every action is a choice that we perform that produces an effect or consequence. When our action is empowered through heart love of our Creator the result is multiplied, and there is an exponential scale that unfolds. The greater our love for a perfect nature the greater power we have to overcome evil in our lives. (Be gone anger, pride, envy, jealousy, lust and most especially fear, the chief amongst them and is found by the desire one has outside of the love of our Creator. When you are outside, still in the field eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, fear, of some degree, is your consequence).

Eden is eternal, a place recognized on the earth in the bible where our Creator thought, and life appeared. This eternal garden is likened to the awakened being.

We have wisdom to give us light/order and understanding. This light comes from knowing our Creator and is imparted to those that love light, life and wisdom. A physician is needed as long as we are eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

Physician in Hebrew is ra'ash, rah-ash, letters of light are Resh, Ayin, and Shin. Meaning: a prime root to undulate (move with a smooth wavelike motion), to make afraid, make to shake, make to tremble, unhealthy vibrations, uproar, commotion, confused noise, earthquake, and fierceness. The understanding given to the writer: The person that relies on their own knowledge and the words of the world has their vision darkened and their thoughts and choices lead to internal pollution of the body and mind as they did not first inquire from our Creator's truth.

The letter Dalet is shaped with two lines, one horizontal and one vertical.

Psalm 118: 19-21-pg 714, "this is the gate of our Creator the pure will enter through it. I shall give thanks for creation has answered me, and perfection is my salvation (awakened state)."

Psalm 62:1-2, pg. 679 "My being finds rest in our Creator alone, for truth, love, light and life is my deliverance (awakened state). Truth alone is my rock and my deliverance, my hightower."

Salvation- y'shuw'ah, yesh-oo-aw, meaning- something saved i.e. deliverance, hence aid, victory, prosperity, health, help welfare from the root word yasha, yaw-shah to be open, wide or free, to be safe, to free or succor, avenging, defend, deliver, help, preserve, rescue, be safe, bring salvation, get victory.

Letters of light are Yud, Shin, Vav, Ayin, and Tav- The understanding given to the writer: The beginning of all things requires the awakening of truth to dwell in man (words of truth) and by these new words of revelation to know our Creator that man may see the life in oneness and live forever.

Once we have salvation (awakened state) within, then, our own tongue becomes a door of life, love and light to others.

In each moment of your life you are breathing our Creator's breath. That means you are listening by the promptings of the truth, within. The human organism is a transformer of forces and according to your awakened thoughts, those forces are transformed into perfect deeds with their consequences. The result is always perfect if you know all things come from your awakened state. Our Creator made us perfect, however, through our choices we enjoy the consequences of love, life and light or suffer with the unawakened man due to unhealthy emotions. Remember it is your choice!!!

In mathematics when you use the Greek letter Delta, which relates to Dalet, it means change. It is a symbol in math that indicates change. It is a door through which things change. We need to consciously utilize our precious opportunity of having a physical body, to spend time in daily prayer or meditation so that we can benefit others. For our health, in body and mind, keep the law of love, life and light so that you have vitality and have it more abundantly.

Day 4 of creation according to the bible – our Creator placed the sun, moon, and stars in heaven to give light on the earth and to separate light from darkness. These are perfect and continuous luminaries that have a perfect purpose of truth that never changes and moves the seasons according to the laws of heaven and earth that govern them. Crossover or pass over from man's way of calculating time, darkness, to the everlasting light of the sun and moon.

Passover (passing from death to life) is a reminder of spring time; we have life because of our awakened state within. Our Creator is of the living and not of the dead – So when we speak of those that have passed on we never say “they died or they are dead”, unless you are talking about the physical body. We are eternal beings and live forever.

Dalet represents humility and the consciousness of possessing truth in order to give. The poor man or women represented by Dalet is not financially or materialistically poor but eternally lacking. The more you feed physical desires, they just get hungrier. That’s because those desires are the vehicle of the tempting unhealthy choices you have succumb to. Yet we become addicted to sensations. Physical sensations, emotional sensations, mental sensations. We are impoverished because our unhealthy desires have stolen everything of value from us. Our physical health, sound mind, and good thoughts.

As much as we seek and seek and seek in this external world, as much as we think we need something outside of truth to give us happiness, we are fooled, we are in a delusion, because nothing external to our “born from within” will ever give you lasting happiness. Rather, love our Creator first and nature, and all the rest will be provided!

“Love your enemies, and do well and lend expecting nothing in return. And your reward shall be great and you shall be awakened sons and daughters because love and truth is kind to the thankless and wicked ones. Therefore, be compassionate and do not judge at all. Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned at all. Return to our Creator and you shall be renewed. Give and it shall be given to you. A perfect measure, pressed down and shaken together and running over shall be put into your lap. For with the same measure with which you measure, it shall be measured back to you.”

Do not measure or compare and you will have mature and complete freedom!

Measure in Hebrew is Middah, mid-daw or madad, maw-dad, means a prime root to stretch as if by stretching a line, [of defense] (The letters of light are placed in a horizontal line for defense, they are your letters of love, life, and light), to be extended for discernment. Your words either expand you are confine you. The letters of light for measure are Mem, Dalet, and Hay. Also, amah, am-maw or em, ame meaning a mother (that is a unit of measure) as the bond of the family. Letters of light are Aleph, Mem, and Hay. The understanding given to the writer: Our Creator with wisdom’s words births the family by awakening the joy within humankind.

Using the aleph-tav the word for poor is dal. The basic food eaten by poor people is called dal. “Poor” is where we get the word porridge in English. We all look at such food as if we are above that. Thus we want to eat expensive, rich food as if it proves our value. But the truth is that as rich as we may be in the physical world, and no manner how good our food is (eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil), if we do not have our Creator born within (tree of life) health, then we are poor both physically and eternally.

What we have within is a desire of, ego, fear, resentment, attachment and hunger. We are a poor man or woman, darkened, burdened with terrible patterns of life, traditions and negative behavior.

Our Creator wants to bestow riches upon us, but cannot if we are not ready to receive it. When we are awakened to these new alive words (which comes from overcoming trials of life and being true to love) Our Creator will lift us up {Di lis so ni} from our bad behavior, family traditions and generational curses and lies.

You do not create anything only our Creator who is all in all is responsible for creation. You may help to build or restore something on this earth but never do you create, only our Creator has that power. For in the beginning our Creator created the heavens and the earth and all that was in them. The thing that is created cannot be the Creator of the thing created. We enjoy the tranquility, unity, and eternal blessings as we join together as one. May you be free and courageous to strengthen our children in truth, light and peace.

Our Creator's breath cannot be separated from the mortal man or woman or the body will perish. Our eternal journey (Gimel-3 light letter) uses our Creator's breath (Aleph-first light letter) through the awakened within to become perfect (mature and balanced) to receive the truth so that we can become a doorway of light to others.

To know Dalet, one has to become a perfect (mature and balanced) expression of the Gimel and Dalet which together spell GOD. In Hebrew it is pronounced Gad. Gad means to tell, “To speak”, and how else did our Creator make us but through Dalet in the throat and out comes male and female voice and words-(mouth is a doorway) Remember, this is where power of love comes from. The words we speak are just like our Creator born within. At the end of your mortal existence kindness will be your most beautiful companion and you will be celebrated by the words you think, say and do. How did Hasatan deceive Eve? By his cunning words!!!!Learn to quiet yourself and speak when you can commune in wisdom.

And our Creator said, “Let there be light: and there was light (order).” Remember we are children of light, the day.

The Gematria of Dalet is 4.

4 basic elements of creation: fire (energy, vigor, vitality, vibration, inspiration, fervent, exuberance, passion, enthusiastic, intensity, light, life, excite, sparkle, awakened, stimulate, enliven, and motivate) air (gas, aria-a song in opera, a breeze, a tune, a jump off the ground, express opinion or grievance, broadcast on radio, parade or show, noticeable all around, unresolved issue), water (liquid, ice, urine, amniotic fluid, the quality of transparency and brilliance shown by a diamond or other gem, finance capital stock that represents a book value greater than the true assets of a person or company, the eyes become full of moisture or tears, produce saliva from the mouth, and water something down such as: an alcoholic drink, a statement or proposal less forceful or controversial by changing or leaving out certain details) and earth (solid, the world, soil, planet, the underground den of a fox, the substance of the human body, cover the root and lower stem of a plant with heaped up earth, return to reality, euphemistic used to refer to the experience of having orgasm, and last, go into hiding).

Today, we are “born from within” the eternal man or woman, our Creator within and have joy for the change of life.

There are 4 levels of interpretation of the Scriptures called PARDES, an acronym formed from:

P’shat – literal meaning based on historical intent of author

Remez – hint, allusion, analogy, allegory

D’rash – application, exposition

Sod – mystery, deep meaning

Indeed the word for knowledge (da’at), means the “door on the eye” using the ancient pictographs.

Lamp = niyr, neer- to glisten, the burner or light, fire, a prime root the idea of the gleam of a fresh furrow; to till the soil, break up, freshly ploughed land- The letters of light are Nun, Yud, Resh. The understanding given to the writer: The mature seed breaks up all darkness and replaces the darkness with wisdom words forming perfect light in the mind and heart.

There are 4 light letters that name the Hebrew god, Yehovah (YHVH) just as there are 4 components of the text of Hebrew scripture:

- a. Otiyot OT-e-yot (letters) – the 22 medial and 5 final forms of the light letter consonants
- b. Nikudot (vowel marks) the vowel marks added to the text.
- c. Tagin (crowns) the crowned letters for the so-called Sha'atnezgets letters: Shin, Ayin, Tet, Nun, Zayin, Gimel, Tszade.
- d. Ta'amin – cantillation or trope marks used for chanting the Torah/scriptures.

Remember, whatever you think, speak and do on this earth will be how you are known –speak kindly about all things and the humble ones will listen, those that want to know our true Creator. The words we speak are the life born within called the word of truth. If words are being used that are not kind and beautiful in a conversation understand; that communication belongs to those that are not awaken. Be kind and only speak beautiful words to these people or just say nothing. This is your test to shine our Creators love. Sometimes you need to ignore people that are confusing in their words and walk away.

Meaning of Dalet:

A door, hang, entrance, back and forth, movement, dangle, weak, poor, lift me up, selflessness, receptiveness, cling.

Dal- a poor person

Dalet- door

Dilisoni- to lift me up. Di lis so ni , di les so nee.

How do these 3 words work together? The convergence occurs when every individual realizes that he or she is poor. This poverty doesn't necessarily denote a state of financial want. Rather it means that everything a person "owns" in fact belongs to our Creator. Life and sustenance comes from truth. Without love and light we have nothing. The acknowledgement of this is the door (teshuva) into the highest vibration of the mind, chamber. And once we enter that chamber, truth will lift us up-dilisoni- to bless us with life, health, sustenance and success.

In Psalm 30 of the book of Psalms, King David tells us, I praise Elohim, Yehovah because He lifts me up (dilisoni). "If we turn this phrase around, we could say dilisoni-Because Elohim, Yehovah lifts up, I praise Him."

In this expression, our Creator lifts us up by giving us the skills to be satiated, prosperous, healthy and loved. This enables us to shine truth about our Creator from eternity to eternity in humble authority for ever and ever.

Love requires peace and humility, which is likened to unleavened bread.

For these are the words of awakened beings; remember they said;

This law, love, is only possible by knowing truth. Please humble yourself and enter in.

Leave the world of darkness and become "love born" from within.

Humility followed by joy is the dance and song of one.

United in love, truth and light; ignites the fun; moving us in present time, the race is won!!

Children story: Bouncer the Ball and Whisper the Wind.

Inside the hall closet sat Bouncer the Ball. He had not been outside for many years. As he patiently waited for the door to open he said, "It is no fun being stuck inside this old, dark, dusty closet. I pray for this door to open."

And to his amazement, that day, the door creaked open. At first Bouncer the Ball did not know what to say or do. He just stared at the tiny opening of light that shinned through towards him. As he looked around the room he found that there was no one present.

"Was he just dreaming this odd occurrence?" he asked himself.

With quick movements, Bouncer the Ball assured himself that he was not dreaming. He first touched the floor, then he touched the wall and in the instant he touched the closet ceiling; he knew it was real and that he was not dreaming.

Bouncer the Ball rolled himself out of the closet and down the hall. When he reached the kitchen, the door to that entrance was closed.

Bouncer the Ball immediately prayed for this door to open. Again, to his amazement, the door creaked open.

Bouncer the Ball quickly rolled through the second door. As he sashayed around the room with great delight he spotted the door that led to the outside. This door, however, was closed too. With great ambition to be in creation again, he approached the door and quietly reviewed his past behavior and life style.

This time when Bouncer the Ball went through the door, he not only knew who opened it but his heart about life had changed.

Out into the yard Bouncer the Ball bounced for joy!!

Bouncer the Ball was praising, singing, and having a glorious time when very faintly he heard Whisper the Wind say, "Can you do it again? Can you do it again?"

"Was that Whisper the Wind playing a game with him? What did he mean, "Can I do it again?" thought Bouncer the Ball as he continued to bounce.

"Can you do it again? Can you do it again?" whispered Whisper the Wind.

"Can I do WHAT again?" Bouncer the Ball said a little louder.

Whisper the Wind said even louder, "Can you do it again, Bouncer the Ball? Can you do it again?"

Bouncer the Ball decided to quit bouncing. He sat very still while he meditated about these words. He felt many emotions as he repeated the words to himself, "Can you do it again?"

Bouncer the Ball continued to roll upon the earth and ponder while waiting for an answer.

As the answer was revealed, Bouncer the Ball understood his hidden pride. He had forgotten to thank our Creator publicly for opening his door to freedom.

Whisper the Wind came to Bouncer the Ball to see if he would take personal credit for the miracle. Without any further hesitation Bouncer the Ball said to Whisper the Wind, "Can I do it again? Can I do it again? Knowing truth, anything is possible."

Have you thanked our Creator publicly for your freedom?

"Thank you for truth and for setting me free!"
