Activities to Be Prepared for:

- Event Auction: Scouting-related items will be up for auction to raise money for the scholarship fund. Cash is preferred and checks can be accepted. Item donations can be dropped off at the council office or connect with toby@tobyhoy.com to make arrangements to drop off with him.
- Cleetus' Critter Cuisine Championship Desserts only: Show off your cooking skills by bringing 24 or more bite sized servings of your favorite dessert. The winner will be the dish raising the most votes cast by cash. $5 entry fee per dish. Advance registration is encouraged.
- Cast Your Votes with Cash for the best desserts: All attendees are needed to help judge the Critter Cuisine contest. Sample the entries, choose your favorites, then vote with your cash. Big bills are welcome, it is a fundraiser after all.
- Dinner will be your choice of mouthwatering brisket, pork, or chicken smoked right on site. Plus, cowboy beans, macaroni & cheese, green beans, and dinner rolls. You will be asked to indicate your meat choice during registration. Vegetarian option available upon request.
- The Wood Badge Hall of Fame recognizes Scouters who have performed noteworthy service to the Wood Badge program. If you wish to nominate a fellow Scouter, complete the nomination form at <https://bit.ly/WBHoF>.
- Pre-event Overnight Accommodations are offered in Leadership Village for the night of Saturday, April 27, 2024. Reservations are first-come, first-served at $50 per ROOM, up to 4 people per room. Scouters must make their own roommate arrangements, and all campers must be age 21+. A hot breakfast will be provided on Sunday morning, there will be no other food or planned activities for campers.

Find more details and register here: <https://mycouncil.buckeyecouncil.org/Event/9528>. You will be asked to indicate your meat choice for dinner, have the opportunity to reserve a room, and can pay the entry fee for the Critter Cuisine contest.

If you cannot make the event, you can still donate to the Wood Badge Scholarship Fund! Please contact Dennis Vargo.
