PERSPECTIVES
"I am going to try to pay attention to the spring.
I am going to look around at all the flowers, and look up at the hectic trees.
I am going to close my eyes and listen."

EASTER BAKE SALE: By popular demand – our annual Easter bake sale returns! This fundraiser supports our church’s mission trips and alleviates angst for those of us who don’t bake but still need goodies for Easter festivities! You can order baked goods in fellowship hall after worship on Sundays prior to Easter – April 7 and 14. There will be a limited number of each item available for pre-orders, so order early to have the most choices! Payment is accepted when you place your order.

CALLING ALL BAKERS: Our Easter Bake Sale returns this year, but to make the bake sale a success – WE NEED ALL OF YOU BAKERS!!! We are looking for pies, breads (banana, nut, zucchini, etc.), iced cakes, bundt cakes, gluten-free treats, or any item that one might bring to an Easter brunch/dinner. Cupcakes, brownies or cookies should be packaged as a multi-serve plate; not for individual cookie sale. Please let us know what and how many items you would like to bake so that we can begin the pre-ordering process. Baked items will be due on Saturday, April 20, the day before Easter, from 3:00 – 5:00 PM in the fellowship hall kitchen. A list of ingredients should be attached (for health and allergy reasons). Please contact Deb Rakich at rakich4@me.com or Lorraine Chilson at lmchilson@gmail.com or call the church office at 203-938-2004 to provide your contact information and the item(s) you would like to bake. Thank you!

TAG SALE BOUTIQUE

Last year’s Yellow Bags generated enormous success for the Tag Sale Jewelry Boutique. We need fresh inventory for 2019. Please take home the yellow bags (located in narthex and office) as a reminder to look in drawers, jewelry boxes, shelves and closets for more donations. Please return the yellow bags brimming with jewelry, scarves, belts and accessories to the church office.

Thank you,

Team Jewelry Boutique
Spring is here and the Tag Sale Studio is ready to open for donations! As you do spring cleaning of your closets or garage, please consider donating items to the Church Fair's giant Tag Sale. Click this link to see the 2019 Tag Sale Donation Guidelines: 2019 Tag Sale Donation Guidelines.

The Studio will be open following church service for two Sundays a month between April and September for drop offs. For April, the dates you may drop off items are April 7 and 28, from 11:30-1:00. Your help in pricing your donations prior to drop-off is greatly appreciated, as it is a time consuming task for volunteers to sort and price all items.

Many thanks to those who have volunteered to work in the Studio on donation days! We have filled many of the Sundays, but still have need for some help. Please click Tag Sale 2019 to Sign-Up Genius for all available dates. The most urgent need is for two volunteers on May 5 and one person to join a team on June 23. Whether you're a tag sale veteran or have never done it before, we would love to have you! (Responsibilities include staying after church in the Studio for 1-2 hours to accept, sort, and price donations.)

If you have any questions, please contact Courtney (203-788-0124, cowlesfam@yahoo.com) or Karen (203-938-2687, kmay563@optonline.net).

Thank you!
NOTES FROM NIKKI

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all.

Titus 2:11

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you;
the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace.

Numbers 6:24-26

Grace continues to be our Sunday school theme, with our scripture focus on Numbers 4: 24-26. Lent continues to be a time for learning about the grace of God. Our MSYG young people traveled to Fisher House in West Haven to support our Veterans and their families. On April 7, Rev. Jane Moran and our deacons will share a time of Teaching Communion with our 1-4th graders.

Our children continue to learn about the ministry of Jesus and the events of Holy Week. They will experience the grace of God with one another through song, prayers, skits and even “secrets”. On Palm Sunday our MSYG will participate in a hike to reflect on the grace of the world both around and within them.

As we draw near to Holy Week and Easter Day, may we all continue to seek ways to share God’s loving grace with one another and the world. May we learn from a letter written by Dr. Ahlberg in response to a question asked by our 3rd & 4th graders in 2011.

Jesus Christ is risen!
Jesus Christ is risen, indeed!
Alleluia!
Happy Easter!

Nikki
April 10, 2011

Dear 3rd and 4th graders:

Thank you for your excellent question! What happens to us when we die -- what is it like? Where do we go? is a subject that, I imagine, has interested human beings and made us wonder for as long as we've been able to think and ask questions. Over the centuries, people have come up with all kinds of creative ideas, pictures and dreams about what heaven looks like. But the truth is, no one knows what, exactly, the afterlife will be like. Even Paul, who believed deeply in God, who trusted God, and who was convinced that Jesus was a messenger of God, tells us that what happens after we die is a "mystery." (I Corinthians 15:51)

Still, though there's mystery involved, Paul also affirms that nothing can ever separate us from God's love...not even death. (Romans 8:38) And so, with Paul, I believe and I trust, we will be with God. And we'll be okay. What, exactly, heaven will look like, or where heaven is, I confess I don't know. No one does. I envision a realm of peace, of harmony with others, of comfort, of wonder. A realm where we're safe. And where God is with us. Our bodies, Paul tells us, will change (we get older, or sick, for example). But the qualities that make each of us the unique people we are -- the spirit, the love, the joy, the essence of you and me -- that, I believe, will remain, even if our bodies wear out. We are each infinitely and unconditionally loved by God.

There's no absolute proof for anything I've said. Really, it comes down to faith and trust in a God who loves us completely and unconditionally. And so I, like untold numbers of people before me, like my grandmother who died a few weeks ago, like Paul and Jesus and Moses and Mary, and so many others, trust in the promises of our faith, and we trust in God. We'll be okay; I believe that with all my heart.

Keep asking great questions!

Your friend and minister,

Dean

4. Between the handprints, glue two sticks end to end vertically. Glue the third stick horizontally to make a cross.
5. In marker, write the words of John 3:16 around the blue circle.

Jesus gives us life
