1) It was pride that first turned angels into devils; and it is only humility that can make people angels again. - St. Augustine

2) Where the Bible and a Christian leader disagree, we must always obey the Bible; and where conscience and culture disagree, we must always follow conscience. - Adapted from John Wycliffe

3) God is patient, but not shy when it comes to dealing with His own. - D.G.

4) Church is not just about finding a comfortable place to sit on Sunday, it’s about a place that challenges your thinking, reshapes your life and joins you to a team with supernatural power to change our neighborhoods, country and world.

5) It is hard to beat a person who never gives up! - Babe Ruth

6) The closer we live to God, the smaller everything else appears. - Rick Warren.

7) Every single mistake I have made began with me first saying “I am tired.” – D.G.

8) It wasn’t that they didn’t love God, it’s just that they didn’t love Him the way they used to.

9) Repentance is not necessarily a feeling, but an action.

10) Note to self: The earth will not stop spinning, if God has to use someone else to do what He told me to do. - D.G.

11) As hard as you may try, you can’t make people listen. People hear what they want to hear.

12) Dance like no one is watching, love like you have never been hurt, sing like only God is listening and live like heaven is already on earth.
