The Holy Eucharist, Rite II • 10:30 a.m.

Gathering Song: “Good Good Father”
I've heard a thousand stories of what they think you're like but I've heard the tender whispers of love in the dead of night and you tell me that you're pleased And that I'm never alone

Chorus: You're a good good father. It's who you are, it's who you are, it's who you are and I'm loved by you. It's who I am, it's who I am, it's who I am

I've seen many searching for answers far and wide but I know we're all searching for answers only you provide 'Cause you know just what we need before we say a word Chorus

Bridge: Because you are perfect in all of your ways. You are perfect in all of your ways You are perfect in all of your ways to us (X2)

Oh, it's love so undeniable. I can hardly speak. Peace so unexplainable, I can hardly think as you call me deeper still. As you call me deeper still. As you call me deeper still Into love, love, love Chorus (X2)

You're a good good father. It's who you are, it's who you are, it's who you are and I'm loved by you It's who I am, it's who I am, it's who I am. You're a good good father

You are perfect in all of your ways. It's who you are, it's who you are, it's who you are and I'm loved by you You are perfect in all of your ways. It's who I am, it's who I am, it's who I am

Welcome and Announcements

Sending Forth by the Parish
Almighty and eternal God, so draw the hearts of our St. James Graduating Seniors to you, so guide their minds, so fill their imaginations, so control their wills, that they may be wholly yours, utterly dedicated to you; and then use them, we pray, as you will, and always to your glory and the welfare of your people; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

(adapted from A Prayer of Self-Dedication, BSP page 832)

Hymn: “Lord I lift your name on high”
Lord I lift your name on high. Lord I love to sing your praises. I'm so glad you're in my life. I'm so glad you came to save us. You came from heaven to earth to show the way. From the earth to the cross my debt to pay. From the cross to the grave...From the grave to the sky.....Lord I lift your name on high Repeat

The Word of God
The Opening Acclamation
The Collect of Purity

Hymn of Praise: All in All
You are my strength when I am weak. You are the treasure that I seek
You are my All in All...Seeking You as a precious jewel
Lord, to give up I'd be a fool. You are my All in All

*Jesus, Lamb of God. Worthy is Your name
Jesus, Lamb of God. Worthy is Your name*

Taking my sin, my cross, my shame. Rising again I bless Your name
You are my All in All. When I fall down You pick me up
When I am dry You fill my cup. You are my All in All. Refrain
The Collect of the Day (Third Sunday of Easter)
Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us so perfectly to know your Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth and the life, that we may steadfastly follow his steps in the way that leads to eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

The Lessons: The First Reading: Acts 8:26-40
An angel of the Lord said to Philip, “Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.” (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, “Go over to this chariot and join it.” So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?” He replied, “How can I, unless someone guides me?” And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this: “Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth. In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth.” The eunuch asked Philip, “About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?” Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, “Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?” He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

The Lessons: The Epistle: 1 John 4:7-21
Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God’s love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God. So we have known and believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them. Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us. Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn 686, verses 1 & 2: “Come thou fount of every blessing”
Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace!
Streams of mercy never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount! Oh, fix me on it, mount of God's unchanging love.

Here I find my greatest treasure; hither, by thy help, I've come;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger interposed his precious blood.

GOSPEL JOHN 15:1-8
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People: Glory to you, Lord Christ
Jesus said to his disciples, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ

Sequence Hymn 686, verses 3 & 1: “Come thou fount of every blessing”

Oh, to grace how great a debtor, daily I’m constrained to be
Let the goodness, like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to thee:
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;
Here’s my heart, oh, take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace!
Streams of mercy never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount! Oh, fix me on it, mount of God’s unchanging love.

Sermon

The Nicene Creed

The Prayers of the People (Youth Confirmation Class)

Youth Confirmand: Lord in your mercy
People: Hear our prayer

The Confession of Sin and Absolution

Priest and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of our Name. Amen

THE PEACE

Celebrant: The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
Response: And also with you.

Presentation of the Senior Crosses

The Holy Communion

Gluten-free wafers available at altar rail. Please request.

Offertory Anthem: Amazing Grace

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost but now am found, was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!

The Lord has promised good to me, his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares, I have already come;
'tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we'd first begun.

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost but now am found, was blind but now I see.

Presentation Hymn: (Hymn 380: stanza 3)
The Great Thanksgiving, Eucharistic Prayer - A
Celeb rant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give him thanks and praise.
The Celebrant continues, concluding with:
Therefor we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name.

Santus: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord. God of power and might Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Lord, we sing your praise

Chorus: Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest
Hosanna in the highest. Lord, we sing your praise

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord. God of power and might Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Chorus: Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest
Hosanna in the highest. Lord, we sing your praise

The Celebrant continues, saying in the midst of the prayer: Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:
People: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues, concluding with:
All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Fraction Anthem:
Cantor: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Communion of the People (Please join us as we sing the Communion music.)

Duet: How Beautiful (All join on the chorus)

Chorus: How beautiful… how beautiful… how beautiful… is the body of Christ.

Oceans
You call me out upon the waters. The great unknown where feet may fail and there I find You in the mystery in Oceans deep, My faith will stand.

Chorus: And I will call upon Your Name and keep my eyes above the waves.
When oceans rise, my soul will rest in Your embrace. For I am Yours and You are mine.

Your grace abounds in deepest waters. Your sovereign hand will be my guide. Where feet may fail and fear Surrounds me, You’ve never failed and You won’t start now. Chorus

Spirit lead me where my trust is without borders. Let me walk upon the waters wherever you would call me. Take Me deeper than my feet could ever wander and my faith will be made stronger in the presence of my Savior. (X3)

Chorus

No Longer Slaves
You unravel me, with a melody. You surround me with a song of deliverance, from my enemies Till all my fears are gone

Chorus: I’m no longer a slave to fear. I am a child of God
I’m no longer a slave to fear. I am a child of God

From my mother’s womb, You have chosen me Love has called my name.
I’ve been born again, into a family...Your blood flows through my veins.
Chorus: I'm no longer a slave to fear. I am a child of God
I'm no longer a slave to fear. I am a child of God
I'm no longer a slave to fear. I am a child of God
I'm no longer a slave to fear. I am a child of God

I am surrounded by the arms of the father. I am surrounded by songs of deliverance
We've been liberated from our bondage. We're the sons and the daughters
Let us sing our freedom

Bridge
My fears were drowned in perfect love. You rescued me and I will stand and sing
I am a child of God.
You split the sea so I could walk right through it. You drowned my fears in perfect love
You rescued me and I will stand and sing I am the child of God (yes I am)

I am a Child of God
I am a Child of God (yes I am)
I am a Child of God (full of faith yes)
I am a Child of God
I am a Child of God

Chorus: I’m no longer a slave to fear. I am a child of God
I’m no longer a slave to fear. I am a child of God

Always
My foes are many. They rise against me but I will hold my ground. I will not fear the war. I will not fear the storm
My help is on the way. My help is on the way

Chorus: Oh my God. He will not delay. My refuge and strength always I will not fear. His promise is true. My God will come through always….Always Trouble surrounds me. Chaos abounding. My soul will rest in You.

I will not fear the war. I will not fear the storm
My help is on the way. My help is on the way. Chorus

Chaos abounding. My soul will rest in You. I will not fear the war. I will not fear the storm
My help is on the way. My help is on the way Chorus

I lift my eyes up. My help comes from the Lord. I lift my eyes up. My help comes from the Lord.
I lift my eyes up. My help comes from the Lord I lift my eyes up. My help comes from the Lord.

Chorus

Sanctuary
Lord, prepare me to be a sanctuary, pure and holy, tried and true. With thanksgiving, I’ll be a living sanctuary for you. Repeat

The Post Communion Prayer (Priest and People)
Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son
Our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with the spiritual food in Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing:

Recessional Hymn: Prince of Peace

ALL:
You are holy…… You are holy
You are mighty…… You are mighty
You are worthy…… You are worthy
Worthy of praise…… Worthy of praise
I will follow…… I will follow
I will listen…… I will listen
I will love you….. I will love you
All of my days….. All of my days

Men

Women
I will sing to You are Lord of Lords
And worship You are King of Kings
The King who You are mighty God
Is worthy Lord of everything
I will love him You’re Emmanuel
Adore him You’re the great I am
I will bow down You’re the prince of peace
Before him Who is the Lamb
I will sing to You’re the living God
And worship You’re my saving grace
The King who You will reign forever
Is worthy You are ancient of days
I will love him You are Alpha Omega
Adore him Beginning and end
I will bow down You’re my savior Messiah
Before him Redeemer and friend

ALL: You’re my prince of peace and I will live my life for you!

The Dismissal:
Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia

People: Thanks be to God. Alleluia

Postlude: Montana

Si tuvieras fe como grano de mostaza
Eso lo dice el Senor
Tu le dirias a la Montana
Muevete, muevete
Esa montana se movera, se movera

If you have faith as small as a mustard seed
Thus says the Lord,
You can say to the mountain
move, move, move
And that mountain will move
move, move

The Gift of Laughter

Two weeks ago I served as the Chaplain for Project Resource. This national church program assists parishes and dioceses learning to do more effective stewardship and planned giving. Attending this conference were twenty small and struggling dioceses. Their lack of financial stability weighs heavy on the bishops, clergy and lay leaders who attended. In my final homily I referred to Jim Stovall’s wonderful book “The Ultimate Gift.” (At St. James we used this book for our Lenten program years ago and may do so again.) In this book, each chapter is named “The Gift of...” One chapter is “The Gift of Work,” another “The Gift of Money,” and another “The Gift of Giving.” My favorite chapter in the book is “The Gift of Laughter.”

We have heard that laughter is good for the soul. Doctors now tell us that laughter is also good for the body. I tried to remind those present that, as Christians, laughter is not only a wonderful gift from God, but also an essential part of our heritage and our stewardship. Laughter creates joy and strengthens community, thereby strengthening the ways we give of ourselves. As with all Gifts from God, we must use laughter appropriately, not making fun or laughing at someone, but rather laughing with each other, binding our lives and hearts.

Theologian Donald Chatfield reminds us of something we often forget: that is, “laughter” is God’s middle name. As God initiates the history of salvation, the voice from the burning bush to Moses says, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” It is by these three names that the covenant of God is recalled in our Prayer Book, found in Eucharistic Prayer C. Jesus also refers to God in these three names more than once. Each of these three names has a meaning, and the middle name means “laughter.”

Life is filled with many difficult, confusing and tragic moments. At times we struggle for meaning, hope, reassurance, and the presence of God. Aside from love, there is nothing that can fill our hearts and renew our spirits better than laughter. No wonder the Psalmist said, “When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream. Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy.” (Psalm 126: 1-2)

Registration is available online through the church webpage, www.stjamesp.org. Contact Amy Taylor with any questions at Director.dayschool@stjamesp.org.

COMMUNITY
by Florence Ellen Cowden
There is an amazing sense of community within the youth group led by Cookie Cantwell and her faithful team of adult advisors. As parents of teenagers, my husband Web and I have seen the meaningful impact Cookie and the advisors have had on our three children. The group is filled with enthusiasm, compassion and huge loving hearts.

Cookie and the fantastic adults who attend Wednesday morning Bible at Port City Java, make our 17 year old son want to get up and be somewhere by 7:00 a.m.! This morning group shares highs and lows of their day to day and feel comfortable talking about God. They have a similar get together on Monday nights, called Prayers and Pasta at the Gwathmey’s house. I saw how important this community was to our daughter and how her Faith was shaped over the course of her middle school and high school years. I have seen how a group of middle schoolers want to skip swim practice, tennis or basketball to watch a video series on The Bible on a week night. The deep discussion and wisdom that comes from these children is something to behold.

Being a teenager is tough and with the love and support of Cookie and her team, kids are encouraged to make good choices and keep from going down a wrong path. I have seen how Cookie and her advisors teach about helping other people in need through mission trips and countless community service opportunities. I have seen how she brings out the best in children, fostering leadership talents they didn’t know they had and making them feel empowered. Cookie and her team of advisors never pretend to know all of the answers, but they are all ears and encourage meaningful conversation in a safe and judgement free environment.

I couldn’t imagine the total “hours” she puts in during her week to week but it doesn’t matter to her or her team because it’s not a job, it’s a ministry. Most importantly I have seen how Cookie and these loving adults help these children grow in their Faith. In my opinion, that’s what Christian Community is all about. This beautiful poem reminds me of Cookie.

Not only in the words you say,
Not only in your deeds confessed.
But in the most unconscious way
Is Christ expressed.
Is it a beatific smile?
A holy light upon your brow?
Oh no, I saw His presence when
You laughed just now.
To me ’twas not the truth you taught,
To you so clear to me so dim.
But when you came to me
You brought a sense of Him.
And from His light He beckons me,
And from your lips His love is shed.
Till I lose sight of you and see
The Christ instead.
