

Informed Consent for Qigong Class

I understand that Sean S. Honea is Licensed Acupuncturist in the state of Virginia. I understand that medical qigong is a form of complementary medicine not licensed by the State of Virginia. In practicing complementary medicine, Sean seeks to support rather than replace the care of your existing physician, therapist, or acupuncturist, by providing medical qigong treatments and exercises designed to assist you in maintaining physical, emotional, and spiritual well being.

Medical qigong, one of the five pillars of Chinese medicine, a system of health care that recognizes the root causes of symptoms or disease, and treats the clients as a whole person. Practiced as an adjunct to Western medicine, medical qigong addresses the energetic imbalances or blockages that contribute to illness. Medical Qigong is not a panacea, but a healing modality that has been practiced in China for over 2,000 years.
