

Suicide Awareness and Prevention Training for School Staff

Tuesday, November 12

1:50-3:05pm ET / 11:50am-1:05pm MT

As a TRAILS partner, you are invited to take part in an upcoming Suicide Prevention Training for School Staff.

This training for all school staff will cover behaviors and characteristics that may indicate elevated risk for suicidal behavior, skills school staff can use to effectively intervene with a student, and the protocol for referring a student to school mental health professionals for additional help. Participants will also gain access to resources and language to use when talking about suicide.

Training (1hr 15min) will include:

- Introduction to TRAILS and core beliefs about suicide prevention in schools
- Recommended language to use when talking about suicide
- Demonstration of asking students directly about potential suicide risk
- Overview of evidence-based practices for screening, assessment, and intervention
- SCECHs (MI) and social work CEUs

We look forward to your participation and please reach out to trainings@trailstowellness.org with any questions.

Next Steps

1. Click here to register at least 24 hours in advance. Space is limited.*
2. Complete this pre-training survey
3. Watch your inbox!
Registration confirmation will be sent to the email under which you registered and will include your unique join link. If you do not receive confirmation within 1 hour, please check your junk folder or reach out to trainings@trailstowellness.org.

Viewing Recommendation

Training takes place via Zoom. Facilitators utilize chat and poll functions to offer an engaging and collaborative training; therefore, participation from individual computers is strongly recommended.

* In the event a training reaches maximum capacity, registration will close and users will be instructed to choose an alternate training date. In the event of low registration numbers, an alternate training format may be offered.
