No rest for GTA real estate market | Sales and prices up from last year
 After a record-setting year for real estate sales in the GTA, 2016 got off to an even hotter start. Sales in January were up by 8.2 per cent compared to last year. The average price for a detached home in the GTA was $848,999, an increase of 18.5 per cent. The biggest price jump took place in the 905 regions, where the average price was 20.9 per cent higher than January 2015. More...

Buying a resale condo | Ask the right questions

One of the biggest advantages of buying a resale condo instead of a new unit is that you can see what you are getting. You can check out room sizes, amenities, the neighbourhood and the view. You can also walk around the building or complex to get an idea of how well it is maintained. Here are a few tips: More...

Property assessments | New ones coming this year

MPAC uses the Current Value Assessment method to determine the assessment, based on property sales in the area. There are more than 200 different factors that go into the assessment, but five major factors account for 85 per cent of the value. More...

Renegotiating your mortgage | Look beyond the interest rate

According to the 2015 Mortgage Survey by Canada Mortgage and Housing Corp. (CMHC), 49 per cent of people renewing their mortgages negotiated different terms when they did so. While getting a low interest rate is clearly a priority, many mortgage holders also renegotiated the terms to better fit their financial situation. More...

Energy efficiency | Tips to save money and reduce consumption

Although homeowners can't fight the increases in gas and electricity costs on a larger scale, they can change their behaviour at home to limit their monthly costs. Consider these energy-saving tips to control your gas and hydro bills. Here are a few easy ways to do it: More...
