<td>10x Is Easier Than 2x</td>
<td>You feel resentful and intimidated by others’ progress and success, all of which makes you feel left out.</td>
<td>You feel increasingly frustrated that you have never learned the “formula” that always produces greater personal success.</td>
<td>You’ve been continually successful in your career but know that your biggest progress and growth are in the past.</td>
<td>You filter and choose everything you undertake on the basis of a 10x payoff in your future performance and results.</td>

<td>Personal Confidence</td>
<td>You see yourself as a victim of an unfair world that cuts you out of the rewards that other people don’t deserve.</td>
<td>You’re increasingly aware that other people are making amazing breakthroughs, but you feel that you’re falling behind.</td>
<td>You realize that you’re at that stage of your life where the goal is to feel certain and secure about what you’ve achieved.</td>
<td>Your professional and personal confidence continually grows as your 10x commitment expands into all areas of your life.</td>

<td>Multiplying Teamwork</td>
<td>You don’t trust anyone to do anything for you because everyone you know is only out for themselves.</td>
<td>You dream about having a bigger and better company but know that you don’t know how to attract and lead a great team.</td>
<td>Your game plan is to maximize the value of your existing capabilities and opportunities without any organizational changes.</td>
<td>Your 10x motivation continually simplifies what you do while multiplying the talented individuals working with you.</td>

<td>Always Growing</td>
<td>You’ve always been “just surviving,” nothing ever gets better, and you know that it never will, so why try?</td>
<td>You keep trying to learn and master new things but fear that you’ll run out of time and energy before you get where you want.</td>
<td>You’ve achieved your biggest and best business goals and now you want to create the best possible retirement payoffs.</td>
<td>You have no stopping point or end game anywhere in your thinking because accelerating growth is its own reward.</td>

<td>Future-Driven Acceleration</td>
<td>More and more, you find yourself obsessed with past frustrations, setbacks, and failures — none of which were your fault.</td>
<td>Your vision of the future keeps getting more confusing, complex, and conflicted, making it more difficult to plan anything big.</td>
<td>You’ve had enough challenge and excitement to get where you are, and now what you want is more predictability and enjoyment.</td>
<td>You respond to every new experience by automatically transforming it into a further 10x future possibility for yourself.</td>
