LIBRARY RESOURCES FOR GRAD STUDENTS

An introduction by Kate Moss, Head of Reference, Instruction and Outreach at the College of Saint Rose
Librarians are your new best friends

- Librarians are available all the hours the library is open
- We know about specific databases and resources for YOUR topic
- We can make your research more efficient and productive
- Make an appointment with us for a personal consultation
Subject Pages on the Library Website

- Visit library.strose.edu
- Check out “Research by Subject”, a tab at the top of the page
- Find your subject on the list on the left
Want to know if we own a certain journal?

Use the Journal Finder

Off Campus Access

- You will be able to access all the library electronic resources from off campus. Go to library.strose.edu and start searching a database, you will be prompted for a login and password.
- It’s the same login and password you use to access campus computers.
- From Google Scholar you can select “Settings” and then “Library Links” to get access to the full-text via Saint Rose databases.
ILL, Scan 4 U and DAP program

- Interlibrary loan is fast and free. It’s a way to borrow from other libraries around the world
- Dissertations and theses: via ILL
- Scan 4 U is a free service - get our print journals scanned and sent to your email electronically
- The Capital District Direct Access Program - visit local libraries and borrow materials from them

Quiet study space and group study space

- The 3rd floor is silent.
- We have individual quiet study rooms available, ask at the Circulation Desk for a key.
- The first floor is better for group work.
- The first floor classroom can be reserved by contacting the Reference Desk.
- There is another group study room on the 2nd floor, reserve it through our website.
