

“One Who Walks With God: Nehemiah”

Living With Our Heart

I. Developing a heart for prayer . . .

Prayer is far less about words we say or affections we feel or burdens we bear than our faith and worship, which is “responding to the Revelation of God,” which affirms His greatness, His grace, His glory, His goodness, and our affirmation of thanksgiving, adoration, and praise. Such a focus instinctively brings confession and supplication!

II. Living to be remembered by the Lord . . .

Nehemiah not only wanted all of God, he wanted God to have all of him!

III. Living the Lord before men . . .

Nehemiah 1.4

When I heard these words,

I sat down — contemplation/consideration

and wept — compassion

and mourned for days; — concern

and I was fasting — concentration and praying before the God of heaven. — communion

One Who Walks With God is a restorer, a renewer, a builder of the broken, battered, and penetrated things of the Lord!
