FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUBARU RECOGNIZED WITH TWO NEWSWEEK GREATEST WORKPLACE HONORS IN 2026 RANKINGS

For the second consecutive year, Subaru of America, Inc. named a top workplace for entry level employees and for mental well-being

CAMDEN, N.J. – May 4, 2026 – Subaru of America, Inc. today announced it has been named to two of Newsweek’s lists of America’s Greatest Workplaces 2026, Greatest Workplaces for Entry Level* and Greatest Workplaces for Mental Well-Being, for the second year in a row. Collectively, these recognitions underscore the automaker’s ongoing commitment to fostering a supportive workplace environment for employees at every stage of their careers, with an emphasis on a strong and sustainable corporate culture.

The Greatest Workplaces for Entry Level award evaluates organizations across key areas, including belonging, sustainability, and awareness, highlighting employers that offer meaningful support and development opportunities for employees at the start of their careers. The Greatest Workplaces for Mental Well-Being recognition honors organizations that prioritize employee mental health as an essential pillar of both individual wellness and overall organizational performance.

Jeff Walters, President and Chief Operating Officer, Subaru of America, Inc.: “We’re honored that Subaru has been recognized by Newsweek for the second year in a row, and believe in supporting our employees, from those at the beginning of their careers to our most experienced colleagues. Through our strong culture, rooted in the Subaru Love Promise®, we empower our workforce to grow, contribute, and help shape the future of our organization while making a meaningful impact in the communities we serve.”

Newsweek and Plant-A Insights Group developed these rankings using a combination of methods, including an analysis of publicly available data, large-scale confidential employee surveys, independent research, and third-party data. Plant-A also partnered with Aniline.ai, a leading Human Resources analytics firm, to analyze more than 37 million data points across more than 120 key performance indicators (KPIs).
