

“And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up: “Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: “And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. “And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: “But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.
“Who hath ears to hear, let him hear” (Matthew 13:4–9).

“The seed is the word of God. The soil is the heart of the person who receives the seed.”
