Sunday Morning Message: Renewed Commitment Psalm 37

Sunday Evening Message: A Purpose to Achieve

“Where Are We Running”?

Running is something most humans do early on in our lives. I know we have the saying you have to learn how to walk before you can run and we talk about baby steps, but nonetheless running is often an integral part of childhood and on. Whether it is playing games like tag or kickball to actual sports like soccer or football, we run. Runners are people who exercise by doing the very act as well as people who go run errands for various bosses. Running doesn't just have a physical context but a spiritual one as well.

I have often heard the phrase that so and so is “running from God” and when I hear that or something similar to it I cannot help but recall Jonah. Jonah 1:10 says, “Hearing this, the men became even more afraid and said to him, ‘What have you done?’ The men said this because they knew that he was trying to escape from the LORD, because he had previously told them.”

The text has previously mentioned how Jonah was trying to flee from God. The word of the Lord had come to him and he was avoiding following it. Sadly it seems as though some have grown to expect their children or others to run away from God as they grow older because that's what happens. Such a reality doesn't have to be the case! I know there are times where we must take time to figure things out but we must always root ourselves and our loved ones in the faith and the truth of God's word.

I think the running away from God is put into perspective with verse 9 and the reaction of the men in verse 10, “He said to them, ‘I am a Hebrew, and I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.’” Jonah wasn't just running away from some false god he was running away from the creator of the earth, all life, the universe! So do many of us at times. We must realize the futility of this just as Jonah did. He knew ultimately bad things were happening because of what he chose to do but just because we run away from God doesn't mean we cannot turn back around!

Hebrews 12:1-2 says, “Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, we must get rid of every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and run with endurance the race set out for us, keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith. For the joy set out for him he endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.”

We can run the race and run towards Our Creator! Remembering the great cloud of witnesses and keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus. What comes with that focus on Jesus is a continual embrace of not only what he did for us but who he is as the Son of God and having taken his rightful place of authority and prominence. So where are you running away from Him or towards Him?
