FSOP Lectureship Week

Good Sunday morning to everyone! Today you will hear a couple of great lessons. This morning Roy Clark will present the lesson and this evening Mark Vaughan will present the lesson. Please give them your attention and your support. We are thankful for their ability to present the word of God!

This morning Anne and I will be worshipping with the Pinecastle church of Christ in Orlando, Florida. Pinecastle asked me to come and preach at their 75-year anniversary back in November, but we were unable to come at that time. I have a rich history with the church in Orlando. Before I moved to this area, I spent three years as their youth minister and in charge of their bus ministry. The Pinecastle church of Christ provided me with a home and supported me through two years at Florida School of Preaching. What a wonderful group of Christians! It is an honor to be able to speak to this congregation again. I am very appreciative of their love and support!

During our stay in Florida, we will be attending the Florida School of Preaching Lectureship. About every five or six years the school invites me to be on the lectureship. The lecture theme this year is A Reasoned Hope: Firm unto the End. There will be multiple great lessons that encourage us as Christians to have hope in any circumstance. My topic will be Hope in the midst of Persecution. We will be looking at times of prosecution that Jesus, Paul, Peter, and others have gone through and of course still have hope! If you would like to view the lectures, they are available on-line at www.fsop.net. We look forward to seeing brethren that we have not seen for a long time.

We are grateful for this opportunity to be able to speak in Florida and see old friends and family. We are thankful to Sunrise for allowing us this opportunity.
