Sunday Morning Message: Roy Clark—Speaker
 Sunday Evening Message: A Look at Wisdom-Part 2

Celebrating God's Blessings on Our Nation

As we celebrate 250 years of the United States of America, we pause first not merely to honor history, but to give thanks to Almighty God. From the beginning, our nation has depended upon blessings that no government, army, economy, or human wisdom could provide. Scripture reminds us, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord" (Psalm 33:12). Whatever our trials and triumphs have been, we acknowledge that every good gift has come from the hand of the Lord.

Across two and a half centuries, God has blessed our land with freedoms to worship, speak, serve, build families, and help our neighbors. These blessings should stir not pride alone, but humble gratitude. James 1:17 tells us, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above." The liberties we cherish are not treasures to take for granted; they are sacred responsibilities to use for God's glory and for the good of others.

As we look back, we also remember that the strength of any nation is not found only in its wealth, power, or achievements, but in righteousness before God. Proverbs 14:34 declares, "Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." This anniversary is an opportunity to ask the Lord to renew our hearts, guide our leaders, strengthen our churches, and teach us again to love justice, mercy, truth, and humility.

The celebration of our nation's 250th year should also move us to prayer. God's promise in 2 Chronicles 7:14 still calls His people to humble themselves, pray, seek His face, and turn from wicked ways. Our greatest hope is not in human strength, but in the mercy of God. Let us pray for revival in our communities, wisdom in our homes, peace among our people, and faithfulness in every generation.

May this milestone celebration be more than a remembrance of the past; may it be a recommitment for the future. Let us thank God for 250 years of blessing upon the United States of America, and let us ask Him to make us a people who honor Christ in word and deed. "Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever" (Psalm 136:1). To God be the glory for all He has done, and may His grace lead us forward.

May God Continue to Bless Our Great Nation—Elvis Galbreath
