Contents

Acknowledgments 000

1 Introduction: Religious, Racial, and Ethnic Identities of the New Second Generation 000

Russell Jeung, Carolyn Chen, and Jerry Z. Park

Part I: Religious Primacy

2 The Diversity-Affirming Latino: Ethnic Options and the Ethnic Transcendent Expression of American Latino Religious Identity 000

Gerardo Marti

3 Islam Is to Catholicism as Teflon Is to Velcro: Religion and Culture among Muslims and Latinas 000

R. Stephen Warner, Elise Martel, and Rhonda E. Dugan

4 Second-Generation Asian Americans and Judaism 000

Helen K. Kim and Noah Leavitt

Part II: Racialized Religion

5 Second-Generation Latin@ Faith Institutions and Identity Formations 000

Milagros Peña and Edwin I. Hernández

6 Latinos and Faith-Based Recovery from Gangs 000

Edward Flores

Part III: Hybridized Ethnoreligion

7 Racial Insularity and Ethnic Faith: The Emerging Korean American Religious Elite 000
Jerry Z. Park

8  Second-Generation Filipino American Faithful: Are They “Praying and Sending”?
Joaquin Jay Gonzalez III

9  Second-Generation Korean American Christians’ Communities: Congregational Hybridity
Sharon Kim and Rebecca Y. Kim

Part IV: Minority Religions and Family Traditioning

10  Second-Generation Chinese Americans: The Familism of the Nonreligious
Russell Jeung

11  “I Would Pay Homage, Not Go All ‘Bling’”: Vietnamese American Youth Reflect on Family and Religious Life
Linda Ho Peché

12  Religion in the Lives of Second-Generation Indian American Hindus
Khyati Y. Joshi

About the Contributors
Index