CONTENTS

Introduction 1
Arlene Dávila

PART I. PRODUCTION

1. Corporate Transnationalism: The US Hispanic and Latin American Television Industries 21
Juan Piñón

2. Converging from the South: Mexican Television in the United States 44
Rodrigo Gómez, Toby Miller, and André Dorcé

3. NuvoTV: Will It Withstand the Competition? 62
Henry Puente

4. One Language, One Nation, and One Vision: NBC Latino, Fusion, and Fox News Latino 82
Christopher Joseph Westgate

5. The Gang’s Not All Here: The State of Latinos in Contemporary US Media 103
Frances Negrón-Muntaner

6. Latinos at the Margins of Celebrity Culture: Image Sales and the Politics of Paparazzi 125
Vanessa Díaz

PART II. CIRCULATION, DISTRIBUTION, POLICY

7. Anatomy of a Protest: Grey’s Anatomy, Colombia’s A corazón abierto, and the Politicization of a Format 149
Yeidy M. Rivero

>> v
8. Colombianidades Export Market
   Omar Rincón and María Paula Martínez
   169

9. The Role of Media Policy in Shaping the US Latino Radio Industry
   Mari Castañeda
   186

    Dolores Inés Casillas
    206

11. The Dark Side of Transnational Latinidad: Narcocorridos and the Branding of Authenticity
    Hector Amaya
    223

PART III. CULTURAL POLITICS

12. “No Papers, No Fear”: DREAM Activism, New Social Media, and the Queering of Immigrant Rights
    Cristina Beltrán
    245

13. Latina/o Audiences as Citizens: Bridging Culture, Media, and Politics
    Jillian Báez
    267

    Deborah R. Vargas
    285

15. Marketing, Performing, and Interpreting Multiple Latinidades: Los Tigres del Norte and Calle 13’s “América”
    María Elena Cepeda
    303

16. Latinos in Alternative Media: Latinos as an Alternative Media Paradigm
    Ed Morales
    322

17. On History and Strategies for Activism
    Juan González
    337

  About the Contributors
  349

  Index
  353