Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction: Student Resistance and the Cultural Production of Space 1

1 “The Covenant Made Visible”:
The Hidden Curriculum of Space 25

2 “In a way it protects us and in a way . . . it keeps us back”: Scanning, School Space, and Student Identity 49

3 “It’s just all about being popular”:
Hallways as Thirdspace 77

4 “If I can’t be myself, what’s the point of being here?”
Language and Contested Classroom Space 109

5 “You have to change your whole attitude toward everything”: Threshold Struggles and Infrapolitical Resistance 141

6 “You know the real deal, but this is just saying you got their deal”: Public and Hidden Transcripts 165

7 A Eulogy for Renaissance: Looking Forward 189

Notes 197

Bibliography 199

Index 207

About the Author 213