CONTENTS

Acknowledgments
1. Masculinity and HIV/AIDS Prevention: Heterosexually Active Men as the “Forgotten Group”?
2. Vulnerable Women, Invulnerable Men? The Need for Intersectionality in HIV/AIDS Prevention
3. Women’s Empowerment and Work with Men in HIV and Antiviolence Programs
4. “One Man Can”: A Women’s Rights and Masculinities-Focused Gender-Transformative HIV and Antiviolence Program in South Africa
5. “Being a Better Man”: Masculinities and Gender Transformation in HIV- and Violence-Prevention Programs

References

Index

About the Author