Contents

Preface: Religion and Race ix

1 Why Do African Americans Pray So Often? 1

2 So Rooted a Past: Slavery and African American Protestant Religious Tradition 31

3 The Apostles’ Creed: Racial Similarities in Commitments to Core Christian Tenets 48

4 Learning and Burning: Racial Differences in “Academic” versus “Experiential” Models of Christianity 57

5 Religious Convictions: Everyday Faith-Based Actions and Beliefs 86

6 Shaded Morality: Not So Black and White 111

7 Far-Reaching Faith: Evidence of an Inclusive Religious Doctrine 133

8 Reconciling the Race Problem: Identity Politics and the Gulf between Black and White Protestants 168

Epilogue: The Race Problem and Beloved Community 199

Appendix A: Sampling Procedures / Sample Characteristics 209

Appendix B: Descriptive Tables 215

Appendix C: Interview Guides 235

Notes 239

References 253

Index 271

About the Authors 279