CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction: Disarticulate and Dysarticulate 1

1. The Bearing Across of Language: Care, Catachresis, and Political Failure 15

2. Linguistic Impairment and the Default of Modernism: Totality and Otherness: Dys-/Disarticulate Modernity 53

3. Post-Modern Wild Children, Falling Towers, and the Counter-Linguistic Turn 105

4. Dys-/Disarticulation and Disability 141

5. Alterity Is Relative: Impairment, Narrative, and Care in an Age of Neuroscience 183

Epilogue: “Language in Dissolution” and “A World without Words” 231

Notes 239

Works Cited 275

Index 295

About the Author 301