Contents

Preface  ix
Mary Beth Norton

Acknowledgments  xi

Introduction: New Men:  1
Feminist Histories of Manliness in Early British America
Thomas A. Foster

PART I. Settlement

1 Gentlemen and Soldiers:  9
Competing Visions of Manhood in Early Jamestown
John Gilbert McCurdy

2 Indian and English Dreams: Colonial Hierarchy and  31
Manly Restraint in Seventeenth-Century New England
Ann Marie Plane

PART II. Warfare

3 “We are men”: Native American and Euroamerican  51
Projections of Masculinity During the Seven Years’ War
Tyler Boulware

4 Real Men: Masculinity, Spirituality, and Community in  71
Late Eighteenth-Century Cherokee Warfare
Susan Abram

PART III. Atlantic

5 “Blood and Lust”: Masculinity and Sexuality in  95
Illustrated Print Portrayals of Early Pirates of the Caribbean
Carolyn Eastman
6 “Banes of Society” and “Gentlemen of Strong Natural Parts”: Attacking and Defending West Indian Creole Masculinity
Natalie A. Zacek

7 “Impatient of Subordination” and “Liable to Sudden Transports of Anger”: White Masculinity and Homosocial Relations with Black Men in Eighteenth-Century Jamaica
Trevor Burnard

PART IV. Enactment

8 “Effective Men” and Early Voluntary Associations in Philadelphia, 1725–1775
Jessica Choppin Roney

9 “Strength of the Lion . . . Arms Like Polished Iron”: Embodying Black Masculinity in an Age of Slavery and Propertied Manhood
Kathleen M. Brown

PART V. Revolution

10 Of Eloquence “Manly” and “Monstrous”: The Henpecked Husband in Revolutionary Political Debate, 1774–1775
Benjamin H. Irvin

11 John Adams and the Choice of Hercules: Manliness and Sexual Virtue in Eighteenth-Century British America
Thomas A. Foster

12 “Play the Man . . . for Your Bleeding Country”: Military Chaplains as Gender Brokers During the American Revolutionary War
Janet Moore Lindman

Afterword: Contending Masculinities in Early America
Toby L. Ditz

About the Contributors

Index