CONTENTS

Preface  ix
Melissa S. Williams

Contributors  xi

Introduction  1
Henry S. Richardson

1. Contingency in Obligation  17
Barbara Herman

2. Moral Improvisation, Moral Change, and Political Institutions: Comment on Barbara Herman  54
Frank I. Michelman

3. Moral Improvisation and New Obligations  64
F. M. Kamm

4. Contingency at Ground Level: A Reply  81
Barbara Herman

5. The Idea of Political Pluralism  95
William A. Galston

6. Value Pluralism, Autonomy, and Toleration  125
Daniel M. Weinstock

7. The Limits of Liberal Pluralism: A Comment on William Galston  149
Robin West
8. International Law as Inter-Public Law
   BENEDICT KINGSBURY
   167

   A Response to Benedict Kingsbury
   WILLIAM E. SCHEUERMAN
   205

10. Cosmopolitanism and International Law
    KENNETH BAYNES
    219

11. Democracy and International Law:
    A Peril from the “Public”?
    GOPAL SREENIVASAN
    240

Index
251