CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction: Holism against Reductionism 1
Joseph E. Davis

PART I. REDUCTIONIST MEDICINE IN CULTURAL CONTEXT

1. Reductionist Medicine and Its Cultural Authority 33
Joseph E. Davis

2. The Problem of Suffering in the Age of Prozac: A Case Study of the Depression Memoir 63
Christina Simko

3. After Medicine: The Cosmetic Pull of Neuroscience 84
Luis E. Echarte

4. Reductionism, Holism, and Consumerism: The Patient in Contemporary Medicine 110
Robert Dingwall

PART II. REDUCTIONIST MEDICINE AND THE DISEASE BURDEN

5. After the Therapeutic Revolution: The Return to Prevention in Medical Policy and Practice 133
Anne Hardy

6. Digitized Health Promotion: Risk and Personal Responsibility for Health and Illness in the Web 2.0 Era 152
Deborah Lupton

7. The Global Threat of (Re)emerging Diseases: Contesting the Adequacy of Biomedical Discourse and Practice 177
Jon Arrizabalaga