CONTENTS

Preface vii
Introduction 1

David B. H. Denoon

PART I. OVERVIEW
1. Southeast Asia: Thriving in the Shadow of Giants 15
Vikram Nehru
2. ASEAN’s External Policy: Caught between the United States and China 50
Ann Marie Murphy
3. Nontraditional Security Threats in ASEAN and Beyond 79
Amy Freedman

PART II. SOUTHEAST ASIAN PERSPECTIVES
4. Pragmatic Equidistance: How Indonesia Manages Its Great Power Relations 113
Evan A. Laksmana
5. Economic and Strategic Trends in Southeast Asia: The View from Singapore 136
Heng Yee-Kuang
6. Tightrope Walking over the Sea of Trouble: Vietnam’s Foreign Policy, Maritime Strategy, and Relations with China and the United States 155
Tran Truong Thuy
7. Not between Scylla and Charybdis: Malaysia’s Relations with China and the United States 194
Zakaria Ahmad
Catharin Dalpino
PART III. THE OUTSIDE POWERS

9. Japan's Relationship with Southeast Asia: The Perpetual Potential Partner 239
   Edward J. Lincoln

10. India and Southeast Asia: From Looking to Acting East Policy 267
    G. V. C. Naidu and Gulshan Sachdeva

11. China's Economic Approach to ASEAN 305
    Chen Shaofeng

12. China and the United States in Southeast Asia 333
    Chu Shulong

13. U.S. Security Strategy and Southeast Asia 359
    Marvin C. Ott

14. U.S. Policy Options in the South China Sea 389
    Michael McDevitt

Conclusion 423
    David B. H. Denoon

About the Contributors 439

Index 443