CONTENTS

Foreword
by Edie Greene ix

Introduction 1

1. Historical Developments in Policing and the Practice of Interrogation: The Emergence of Civilian Policing 9

2. The Current Nature of Police Interrogation 30

3. Deceptive Interrogation Tactics 62

4. False Confessions and Their Causes 105

5. Costs and Consequences of Deception, Coercion, and False Confessions 135

6. Expert Testimony 165

7. Safeguards 189

Conclusions and Recommendations 215

Acknowledgments 253

Notes 255

References 261

Index 301

About the Authors 317