CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1
Beth Bailey and Richard H. Immerman

PART I. THE WARS AND THEIR ORIGINS

1. The Wars’ Entangled Roots: Regional Realities and Washington’s Vision 21
   Michael A. Reynolds

2. 9/11: Bush’s Response 54
   Terry H. Anderson

PART II. THE POSSIBILITIES AND LIMITS OF AMERICAN MILITARY AND DIPLOMATIC STRATEGY

3. Intelligence and the Wars in Iraq and Afghanistan 77
   Richard H. Immerman

4. Assessing Strategic Choices in the War on Terror 99
   Stephen Biddle and Peter D. Feaver

5. Military Strategy in Afghanistan and Iraq: Learning and Adapting under Fire at Home and in the Field 124
   Conrad C. Crane

6. Human Rights as a Weapon of War 147
   Jonathan Horowitz

PART III. WAGING AND THE WAGES OF WAR

7. The Combatants’ Experiences 175
   Lisa Mundey

8. Fighting (against) the Wars in Iraq and Afghanistan 194
   David Farber
9. Limited War in the Age of Total Media
   Sam Lebovic
   220

10. “Watching War Made Us Immune”: The Popular Culture of the Wars
    Andrew C. McKevitt
    238

PART IV. LESSONS AND LEGACIES

11. Veterans’ Readjustment after the Iraq and Afghanistan Wars
    David Kieran
    261

12. The Lessons and Legacies of the War in Iraq
    Robert K. Brigham
    286

13. The Lessons and Legacies of the War in Afghanistan
    Aaron B. O’Connell
    308

Timeline
   333

Glossary
   343

Notable Persons
   351

About the Contributors
   355

Index
   359