CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii
Introduction 1

Corinne T. Field and Nicholas L. Syrett

PART I. AGE IN EARLY AMERICA

1. “Keep Me with You, So That I Might Not Be Damned”: Age and Captivity in Colonial Borderlands Warfare 23
   Ann M. Little

2. “Beyond the Time of White Children”: African American Emancipation, Age, and Ascribed Neoteny in Early National Pennsylvania 47
   Sharon Braslaw Sundue

PART II. AGE IN THE LONG NINETEENTH CENTURY

3. “If You Have the Right to Vote at 21 Years, Then I Have”: Age and Equal Citizenship in the Nineteenth-Century United States 69
   Corinne T. Field

4. A Birthday Like None Other: Turning Twenty-One in the Age of Popular Politics 86
   Jon Grinspan

5. Statutory Marriage Ages and the Gendered Construction of Adulthood in the Nineteenth Century 103
   Nicholas L. Syrett

6. From Family Bibles to Birth Certificates: Young People, Proof of Age, and American Political Cultures, 1820–1915 124
   Shane Landrum

7. “Rendered More Useful”: Child Labor and Age Consciousness in the Long Nineteenth Century 148
   James D. Schmidt
8. “A Day Too Late”: Age, Immigration Quotas, and Racial Exclusion 166
   Yuki Oda

PART III. AGE IN MODERN AMERICA

   William Graebner

10. “The Proper Age for Suffrage”: Vote 18 and the Politics of Age from World War II to the Age of Aquarius 209
    Rebecca de Schweinitz

    Timothy Cole

    Stuart Schoenfeld

13. A Chicana Third Space Feminist Reading of Chicana@ Life Cycle Markers 282
    Norma E. Cantú

14. Delineating Old Age: From Functional Status to Bureaucratic Criteria 301
    W. Andrew Achenbaum

About the Contributors 321

Index 325