Acknowledgments

1. Introduction
   Marla Brettschneider, Susan Burgess, and Christine Keating

PART I: BUILDING LGBTQ MOVEMENTS

2. Rethinking GLBT as a Political Category in U.S. Politics
   Zein Murib

3. Politics outside the Law: Transgender Lives and the Challenge of Legibility
   B Lee Aultman and Paisley Currah

   J. Ricky Price

5. Queering Reproductive Justice: Toward a Theory and Praxis for Building Intersectional Political Alliances
   Kimala Price

6. The “B” Isn’t Silent: Bisexual Communities and Political Activism
   Charles Anthony Smith, Shawn Schulenberg, and Eric A. Baldwin

7. Embodying Margin to Center: Intersectional Activism among Queer Liberation Organizations
   Joseph Nicholas DeFilippis and Ben Anderson-Nathe

8. From “Don’t Drop the Soap” to PREA Standards: Reducing Sexual Victimization of LGBT People in the Juvenile and Criminal Justice Systems
   Sean Cahill

PART II: LGBTQ POLITICS IN THE DISCIPLINE OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

9. Our Stories
   Angelia R. Wilson
10. The Politics of LGBTQ Politics in APSA: A History (and Its) Lesson(s) 177
   Martha Ackelsberg

11. Power, Politics, and Difference in the American Political Science Association: An Intersectional Analysis of the New Orleans Siting Controversy 198
   Susan Burgess and Anna Sampaio

12. Where Has the Field Gone? An Investigation of LGBTQ Political Science Research 212
   Barry L. Tadlock and Jami K. Taylor

   Jyl Josephson and Thaís Marques

PART III: LGBTQ POLITICS AND PUBLIC OPINION IN THE UNITED STATES 249
   Susan Burgess

14. The How, Why, and Who of LGBTQ “Victory”: A Critical Examination of Change in Public Attitudes Involving LGBTQ People 252
   Jeremiah J. Garretson

15. Equality or Transformation? LGBT Political Attitudes and Priorities and the Implications for the Movement 270
   Donald P. Haider-Markel and Patrick R. Miller

   Ravi K. Perry and X. Loudon Manley

17. Equality in the House: The Congressional LGBT Equality Caucus and the Substantive Representation of LGBTQ Interests 309
   Paul Snell

   Mandi Bates Bailey and Steven P. Nawara

PART IV: MARRIAGE EQUALITY POLITICS 351
   Susan Burgess

19. Marriage Equality: Assimilationist Victory or Pluralist Defeat? 353
   Courtenay W. Daum

20. The State of Marriage? How Sociolegal Context Affects Why Same-Sex Couples Marry 374
   Ellen Ann Andersen
21. Queer Sensibilities and Other Fagchild Tools
   Jerry D. Thomas
   394

22. You Don’t Belong Here, Either: Same-Sex Marriage Politics and LGBT/Q Youth Homelessness Activism in Chicago
   Jason Stodolka
   414

PART V: LGBTQ POLITICS IN GLOBAL CONTEXT
   Christine Keating

23. Political Science and the Study of LGBT Social Movements in the Global South
   Julie Moreau
   439

24. Homonationalism and the Comparative Politics of LGBTQ Rights
   Miriam Smith
   458

25. Top Down, Bottom Up, or Meeting in the Middle?
   The U.S. Government in International LGBTQ Human Rights Advocacy
   Cynthia Burack
   477

26. Pink Links: Visualizing the Global LGBTQ Network
   Christina Kiel and Megan E. Osterbur
   493

PART VI: QUEER FUTURES
   Christine Keating

27. Whither the LGBTQ Movement in a Post–Civil Rights Era?
   Gary Mucciaroni
   525

28. Scouting for Normalcy: Merit Badges, Cookies, and American Futurity
   Judy Rohrer
   545

29. Queering the Feminist Dollar: A History and Consideration of the Third Wave Fund as Activist Philanthropy
   Melissa Meade and Rye Young
   563

30. Single-Sex Colleges and Transgender Discrimination: The Politics of Checking a “Male” or “Female” Box to Get into College
   Heath Fogg Davis
   580

About the Contributors
   599

Index
   607