CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

1. Family Narratives and the Social Construction of Descendant Identity 13

2. Ritual and the Emotional Transmission of Holocaust Trauma 41

3. Redefining the Sacred: Spirituality and the Crisis of Masculinity among Children and Grandchildren of Survivors 65

4. The Social Relations of Inherited Trauma: The Meaning of Attachment and Connection in the Lives of Descendants 83

5. Reengaging the Past: Identity, Mourning, and Empathy at Sites of Terror 105

6. Descendants as Holocaust Carriers: Bringing the Past into Public Consciousness 125

Conclusion: The Changing Landscape of Holocaust Remembrance and Future Directions in the Study of Traumatic Inheritance 149

Notes 159

Bibliography 161

Index 173

About the Author 179