CONTENTS

Introduction

Jenell Johnson, Kelly E. Happe, and Marina Levina

PART I. CATEGORICAL UNDERSTANDINGS

1. Governing Sexual Health: Bridging Biocitizenship and Sexual Citizenship

   Steven Epstein

   21

2. Carceral Biocitizenship: The Rhetorics of Sovereignty in Incarceration

   Sarah Burgess and Stuart J. Murray

   51

3. Epigenetics and the Biocitizen: Body Temporality and Political Agency in the Postgenomic Age

   Kelly E. Happe

   70

PART II. MODES OF GOVERNANCE

4. Chronic Citizenship: Community, Choice, and Queer Controversy

   Jeffrey A. Bennett

   95

5. The Necropolitical Functions of Biocitizenship: The Sixth International AIDS Conference and the U.S. Ban on HIV-Positive Immigrants

   Karma R. Chávez

   117

   Carl Elliott and Emma Bedor Hiland

   133
PART III. ACTIVISM AND RESISTANCE

7. Feeding Hunger-Striking Prisoners: Biopolitics and Impossible Citizenship
   Nayan Shah 155

8. Biocitizenship on the Ground: Health Activism and the Medical Governance Revolution
   Merlin Chowkwanyun 178

9. The Rise of Health Activism: The Importance of Social Class to Biosociality
   Celia Roberts and Richard Tutton 204

    Heather Aspell, Julie Cerrone, and Kirsten Schultz 222

PART IV. BEYOND THE BIOCITIZEN

11. Nonhuman Biocitizens: Lab Animals, Cruel Optimism, and the Politics of Death
    Marina Levina 233

12. The Citizens of Incubators: Vessels of Care and Control
    Oron Catts and Ionat Zurr 255

    Celeste M. Condit 274

Acknowledgments 307
About the Contributors 309
Index 317