Contents

Figures vii
Contributors xii
Chronological Table xiii
Preface xv
Introduction Roger S. Bagnall and Olaf E. Kaper 1
1 Amheida in Its Surroundings 11
The natural landscape and its evolution Paola Davoli
The sacred landscape Olaf E. Kaper
The economic landscape Roger S. Bagnall
2 Amheida before the Romans 35
Early remains on the temple hill Paola Davoli
Textual and decorative evidence for the New Kingdom and the Third Intermediate Period Olaf E. Kaper
The temples of the Late Period Olaf E. Kaper
A sacred necropolis Paola Davoli
3 The Urban Landscape during the Roman Period 61
The city plan of Roman and late Roman Trimithis Paola Davoli
The baths of Trimithis Paola Davoli
Two houses Paola Davoli, Roger S. Bagnall
4 Egyptian Religion at Trimithis during the Roman Period 105
   The temple Paola Davoli, Olaf E. Kaper
   Funerary life: the pyramids Olaf E. Kaper
   Onomastics Roger S. Bagnall

5 Christianity at Trimithis and in the Dakhla Oasis 119
   The church of Trimithis Nicola Aravecchia
   Other evidence of Christianity at Amheida Roger S. Bagnall and Raffaella Cribiore
   Other churches in Dakhla: Kellis, ‘Ain el-Gedida, Deir Abu Matta, Deir el-Molouk, ‘Ain es-Sabil Nicola Aravecchia

6 Economy and Society in the Roman Oasis 149
   The oasis economy Roger S. Bagnall
   A rural settlement in the oasis system Nicola Aravecchia
   Government and military Roger S. Bagnall
   Oasis society Roger S. Bagnall

7 Trimithis in the Culture of the Eastern Roman Empire 179
   Literary culture and education in the Dakhla Oasis Raffaella Cribiore
   Amheida’s wall paintings Susanna McFadden
   The evidence of Greek names Roger S. Bagnall

Abbreviations 219
Bibliography 221
Index 237