“Feminist Legal Theory brings together a comprehensive and lucid treatment of feminist theoretical approaches to the most pressing legal problems of our time. This book will serve as an essential desk reference for those who are new to feminist legal theory as well as for those of us who are veterans.”

—Katherine Franke, Columbia Law School

“A must-read for those who are interested in how feminist legal thinking has influenced and continues to have an impact on the development of legal rules. I recommend it to all those who are interested in the complex problems that confront women throughout the world in the twenty-first century.”

—Theresa Beiner, University of Arkansas at Little Rock

FEMINIST LEGAL THEORY
A PRIMER
NANCY LEVIT AND ROBERT R. M. VERCHICK
WITH A FOREWORD BY MARTHA MINOW

A t long last, the complex field of feminist legal theory is presented in accessible, teachable form by two of its experts, Nancy Levit and Robert R. M. Verchick. In this outstanding primer, the authors introduce the diverse strands of feminist legal theory and the array of substantive legal issues relevant to women’s and gender studies. The book centers on feminist legal theories—including legal treat-ment theory, cultural feminism, dominance theory, critical race feminism, lesbian feminism, post-modern feminism, and ecofeminism. The authors also address feminist legal methods, such as con-sciousness raising and storytelling.

The primer demonstrates the ways feminist legal theory operates in real-life contexts, including domestic violence, reproductive rights, workplace discrimination, education, sports, pornography, and global issues of gender. Levit and Verchick highlight a sweeping range of cutting edge topics at the intersection of law and gender, such as single sex schools, women in the military, abortion, same sex marriage, date rape, and the internation- nal trafficking in women and girls.

At its core, Feminist Legal Theory shows the importance of the role of law and feminist legal theory in shaping contemporary gender issues.

NANCY LEVIT is the Curators’ and Edward D. Ellissan Professor of Law at the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law.

ROBERT R. M. VERCHICK holds the Gauthier-St. Martin Chair at Loyola University New Orleans School of Law.
